

Joycee-ettes model fashions

by Lois Getty

All is in readiness for the Mount Joy Joycee-ettes to open the doors of the American Legion at 7:30 p.m. on March 10 for their second annual Dessert, Fashion Show, Card Party. Guests will select their own tables, and serve themselves at the dessert buffet table. Guests will also be requested to refrain from playing cards during the fashion show.

Fashions from the Orange Owl will be modeled by these Joycee-ettes: Joanne Aument, Joanne Nolt, Debbie Newcomer, Joan Moore, Rhonda Proctor, Julie Grove, Becky Gohn, Jacquie McCurdy, Jean Sargen, and Harriet Nye. Mrs. Mary Gingrich, Mrs. Mary Sprecher, and Mrs. Dottie Heilig will also be modeling.

A few tickets are still available and can be reserved by calling 653-1230. All proceeds from the event will benefit the various community projects of the Joycee-ettes.

A "Meadowflower Knit" was the choice of Joanne Aument in this lovely jacket dress. Gay Gibson designed the natural color jacket to top the meadowflowered tank top and the solid whirlaway skirt. The bodice with dropped waistline is printed with sprigs of red, yellow, navy and green. It too is a machine washable polyester knit, from the Junior department.

Mrs. Mary Gingrich is wearing a 100% polyester, machine washable, long black dress with flowers embroidered in white. The long tapered sleeves, the neckline, and slightly raised waistline are trimmed with self-fabric bias. This dress is a LadyLaura creation by Toni Todd and can be found in the half-size department.

Jean Sargen has chosen apple green Cos Cob slacks from the missy department made from textured 100% polyester fabric. These compliment her Ship 'n Shore layered-look blouse set. The short-sleeved shirt underneath is a "Care-free Knit" of 100% Cotton, accented by the large embroidered red apple motif. The same motif is repeated in miniature on the polyester and cotton overblouse.

Letters to Editor

Dear Editor:

Three weeks ago I lost my best friend, Abby. Abby was as devoted and unselfish as any friend ever was. She had been my companion for almost eight years and I loved her like one of my family.

This morning a neighbor called; he found Abby lying in the field near the road not far from our house. She was dead, shot in the shoulder.

Somewhere in this area there is a very warped creature getting a thrill by shooting friends. (There have been at least five friends shot in this immediate area.) Why is nothing done about this atrocity? The problem lies in the fact that to the law and to other unconcerned citizens, these friends are only dogs, but to their owners they are members of the family.

The loss I feel is tremendous and the anger and frustration created by this cruel and needless murder is even greater. I can't help but think that this world would be a much nicer place if people were more like dogs - loving and unselfish rather than thoughtless, selfish, callous and cruel like the psychotic human that shot my harmless and defenseless friend. Good luck who ever you are, your head needs help.

A mourning and disgusting friend,

BPW hears Peggy Rosol

Mrs. Peggy Wolfe Rosol was guest speaker for the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's Club at the regular February meeting held at Hostetter's Dining Hall, Mount Joy. The Lancaster County native graduated from Donegal High School in 1956 and was immediately employed at the Armstrong Technical Center. Here she took advantage of the Education program and after 11 years as a part-time student, graduated in 1974 with a BA in business administration. She is now supervisor in the Quality Assurance Department of Armstrong, in Product Performance and Certification.

The subject of Mrs. Rosol's presentation was an "Eleven Year Encounter." The project required a great amount of sacrifice, but the speaker advised "start with your dream and complete it. Any course uses the 'C's': confidence, conviction, courage and capacity," she said.

The program was arranged by the Foundation Development committee with Mrs. Robert Breinich as chairperson. Mrs. Marlin Sinegar served as mistress of ceremonies in the absence of the chairperson. Members of the committee are Mrs. Edna Guhl, Helen Schule, Mrs. Wilbur Shoop, Mrs. Ralph Tome and Mildred Way. A questionnaire was reviewed, revealing information on the National Foundation for BPW.

The March 24 meeting will be arranged by the Hospitality committee, celebrating the Club's birthday.

Miss Odessa Mull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mull, Marietta, was introduced as girl of the month by Mrs. Etsell, chairperson of the personal development committee. Mrs. Mull was also a guest of the club.

Mrs. Don Musser, corresponding secretary, presented several vocal selections accompanied by Mrs. George Broske.

In the business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Gerald Sheetz, Mrs. Molly Hart was recognized for selling more than 50 tickets for the Candlelight Tour, a club project. Mrs. Hart was commended by the finance chairperson, Mrs. June Whalen. Mrs. also reminded those present of the "Night of Music," a variety of musical acts, to be presented under the direction of Miss Dorothy Schock, on Saturday, March 1, at 8 p.m. in the Donegal High School auditorium.

Mrs. John Fry, 1st vice-president was elected as delegate to the National Convention in Las Vegas and also to the Spring District Meeting to be held at Quality Court, Centerville. The president and Mrs. Earl Koser were also named as delegates. Mrs. Hart, Miss Mary Jane Hoffer and Mrs. Whalen were elected as alternates. Mrs. Koser and Mrs. Hart will attend the State Convention to be held in Pittsburgh, June 13 - 15.

Alternates to Pittsburgh are Mrs. Barry Etsell and Mrs. Whalen. The board of directors will meet at the home of the president on March 11, at 7:30 p.m.

Elected to the nominating committee were Mrs. Ben Horst, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Sprecher and Mrs. Marlin Sinegar.

Miss Anna Mae Eby, co-chairperson for the hobby show to be held May 24, in the Donegal High School, distributed forms for registering exhibitors.
