

Vera Newcomer's art

Her first artistic interest was tole ware, of which she has produced many pieces. She then studied painting under Charles X. Carlson of Kirk Mills and Henry M. Libhart of Marietta.

Mrs. Newcomer is a member of the Lancaster County Art Association and has won numerous prizes in art contests.

Her paintings have been bought and hang today in many parts of the world; a painting of Donegal Church by her is in Kenya, Africa.

Her work is of many styles. She is continually learning new techniques. She has made a fine art of flower pressing in complex patterns.

Recently, she has also been taking lessons on the organ.
