BOY SCOUT COUNCIL TO CONDUCT TRAINING FOR WEBELOS LEADERS

The Lancaster-Lebanon Council, Boy Scouts of America is busy making plans for a full day of training for Webelos Cub Scout Leaders on April 5. Webelos Leaders are men who work with the 10 year old Cub Scouts in special groups.

The Training Course will be held at the J. Edward Mack Scout Reservation. Opening the Course at 9:30 a.m. and concluding at 4:00 p.m., the day's event will include a cook-out.

The Cub Leaders will receive instruction in Den Operation, Camp Set-Up, Activity Badges, Record Keeping, Parent Relationship, Ceremonies and Program Planning. Scouters who have not registered to attend, should do so as soon as possible. The registration fee is two dollars per person to cover the cost of materials and food.

GC ALUMNI LOCAL MEETING

Alumni, parents of students and friends of Goshen College, Indiana, in eastern Pennsylvania will have a dinner meeting Saturday evening, April 12, at 6:30 p.m., at the Mennonite Central Committee Dining Hall, in Akron.

Dr. J. Lawrence Burkholder, president of Goshen will be the guest speaker.

Reservations for the meal should be sent to Mrs. Jeanette Rice, 48 Lancaster Ave., Strasburg, Pa. 17579, by April 5.

Dr. Burkholder has been president at Goshen College since 1971. He is a graduate of the college and was a professor of the school's department of Bible, religion and philosophy for 13 years. He has served as a Mennonite pastor, as administrator of relief programs of the Church World Service and the Mennonite Central Committee in India during 1944-45 and in China from 1945-48. He was also a relief commissioner to Vietnam under Church World Service in 1954.

Dr. Burkholder was a professor in the department of the church at Harvard Divinity School for ten years.

Goshen College is a four-year, liberal arts college in Goshen, Indiana. It is owned and operated by the Mennonite Church and has nearly 1,250 students enrolled throughout the school year.
