Sue Hamilton wins creativity contest

Sue Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hamilton, 122 Harter Street, Maytown, won first place in overall entries with her full length gown of skillet cloth on Creativity Day, sponsored by the Towne Club of Lancaster. She also won a blue ribbon for first place in the dress-up category for high school level. Encouraged by her Home Ec teacher, Miss Wiler, Sue entered her creation which she said cost her half as much as one purchased in a store. Sue is also creative with ceramics, sand layering and is currently attempting to master decoupage. She has had four years in studying home ec and plans to learn to make suits and coats her final year at Donegal High School.

Second and third place winners were Brenda Gibble and Lisa Salsbery. First place winner for Junior High School age was Cindy Prowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Prowell, S. River St., Maytown.

Cindy chose a beige print, cotton material for a tailored dress. The dress has long, slim sleeves and features pleats front and back. Her earrings matched the brown buttons down the back of the dress. For other accessories, she chose a gold chain necklace, soft tan clogs and matching shoulder bag.

Second position was taken by Vicki Fogie, while third place was captured by Chris Spickler. Mrs. Bruce Greiner, Mount Joy, was sewing chairlady and judges were Mrs. Mary Dietrick, Hempfield School District, Mrs. Jackie Battle, buyer for better dresses of Garvins and Mrs. Rose Ramsey, Mount Joy.

Selissa Stauffer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Stauffer, Mount Joy, took top position in woodworking for her replica of an antique chest. Mark Sipling was second with his checkerboard and Jere Sipling walked away with third prize for his cedar silverware chest. Mrs. Herbert Eager, was judge of this portion of the competition.

All the above first place winners are eligible for competition on the District level on April 4, at the Youth For Christ Building, New Danville Pike, Lancaster, where the fashions and crafts will be on display from 1 - 3 p.m.

Mrs. J. Bruce Greiner, Mount Joy, was tops in best of show in the crafts division and won a blue ribbon in the paper craft category.

Mrs. Eric Olson, Mount Joy, was elected president in the business session.

The tickets for the May 7th Bus Trip will be on sale.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS TO HOLD PUBLIC HEARINGS

The Lancaster County Commissioners will hold a series of public hearings on the proposed Lancaster County Comprehensive Plan next week. A local hearing will take place. All Lancaster County residents are welcome and invited to attend the hearings.

The proposed Lancaster County Comprehensive Plan has been prepared by the Lancaster County Planning Commission over a period of several years. It is intended to serve as a guide for all - public bodies, private organizations, and individuals - whose actions will have an effect on the future of Lancaster County. The Plan covers the main areas of population, land use, transportation, community facilities, housing, economy, utilities and services, environment, and human services. For each of these areas, the Plan includes background information and a series of proposals; it also points out the the proposals whose implementation should receive the highest priority and discusses the financial aspects of the implementation process.

Copies of the proposed Lancaster County Comprehensive Plan are available for $1.00 at the Lancaster County Planning Commission, 900 East King Street, Lancaster, Pa. 17602. A few of the graphics, which are too complex to be reproduced for general distribution at this time, are on display at the Planning Commission office and will be discussed at the public hearings.

REP. BRANDT TO HAVE MOBILE OFFICE

Rep. Kenneth E. Brandt, R-Lancaster, announced that he will begin bringing his new "Mobile Office" to his 98th District constituents to help solve their problems on a personal basis.

Using a converted camper for this month-long trial period, the State Assemblyman will kick off his effort at the steps of the Capitol building in Harrisburg and is scheduled to conduct a "drive-through" of all centrally located boroughs in the District.

"I am initiating this "mobile office" concept after numerous requests and careful evaluation toward improving service to the people," Brandt said.

"At the end of the month, the program will be reviewed to determine if the Mobile Office is the best method for reaching as many Lancaster Countians as possible with the least inconvenience to them.

"After leaving Harrisburg the first day, April 4, I plan to make a tour through the the boroughs of Columbia, Elizabethtown, Manheim, Marietta, Mount Joy and Mountville on the same date," Brandt explained.

Brandt said his Mobile Office will be stationed at a different borough each Friday evening and Saturday morning throughout the month.

The exact times and locations for the rest of the month will be announced at a later date.
