FOOD DRIVE ON AT ST. MARK'S U. M. CHURCH

An ambitious program to provide massive food relief to the poor and hungry of South Philadelphia is underway at St. Mark's United Methodist Church, 27-29 E. Main St., Mount Joy. The impetus for the action was a letter from Southside Center, a United Methodist congregation and community center on South Street in the city of Philadelphia, appealing for immediate help in their food distribution program. Many people are going hungry because they must be turned away for lack of provisions at the Center.

St. Mark's Church, which provided three truckloads of food from its Harvest Home collection in the fall of '74, wants to do even more this time for the needy of the city. In its present plans it is seeking to raise at least $1,000 to supply large quantities of potatoes, flour, and canned goods. Sources of supply have been located. Members of the church will help prepare 10 tons of potatoes in 20 lb. bags. Flour will be put into 10 lb. bags at a local mill. Some 65 cases of canned goods have been ordered locally.
Contributions are being sought in the church and in the community toward this large-scale program of relief. The target date is April 20, 1975. On that date a tractor trailer will deliver the aid to South Philadelphia for further referral through agencies that will be set up to help those in need.

April 9, 1975
Spearheading the drive are Mr. Joe Buchenauer, Mr. Warren Miller, and Mr. John Booth.

Anyone wishing to help in the project should call the church office from 9 to 12 noon (653-5493).

CHURCH OF THE BROTHERN CHOIRS TO PERFORM CANTATAS

Two choirs of the Elizabethtown Church of the Brethren, 777 South Mount Joy Street, Elizabethtown, will present a program of Easter music in the church sanctuary on April 13, at 7:30 p.m.

The adult choir will sing one of J. S. Bach's best known cantatas, "Christ Lay In Death's Dark Prison." This piece is based on a text by Martin Luther with variations on a choral theme. The sixth, seventh and eighth grade choir will sing another cantata with an Easter theme, "The Sower and The Seed," which celebrates new life springing from the earth. David Myers will accompany both choirs on the organ.

WHITE ELEPHANT SALE AND AUCTION

The Men's Association of Donegal Presbyterian Church, Mount Joy, presents the first Annual Spring Sale and Auction at the old school grounds, Donegal Springs Road, Saturday, April 12, beginning at 10 a.m.

Many interesting bargains will be sold or placed on the auction block. These include an RCA Color Television, Chest Freezer and the old organ from Donegal Church. Also some long play albums of the Incredible Years 1968 and 1969, other records, household appliances, articles of clothing and many other items too numerous to mention.
Come and make a full day of fun, fellowship and good food. Food will be provided by the Women's Association of Donegal Church.
Proceeds will be used in the restoration of the Study House on the church grounds.
