SPECIAL SUNDAY EVENING PROGRAM AT ST. MARK'S
The Commission on Missions and Social Concerns of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, has arranged a special program for Sunday Evening, April 27th, at 7 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. James Carroll of Chester, Pa., will be the guests of the congregation and will explain in detail the work that is being done at the Chester Community United Methodist Church. They will bring colored slides to bring the project more vividly to the people of Mount Joy.

The Susquehanna Bulletin Church Page will now include the regular schedules of all area churches. It will no longer be necessary for these to be mailed to us on a weekly basis. We do invite churches to send us news items about special programs of community interest for inclusion on the Church Page. Please send all Church News to Susquehanna Bulletin, Box 75A, R. D. 1, Marietta, Pa. 17547. Copy deadline is Friday.

DRUNKEN DRIVERS TO LOSE LICENSES
Drivers will automatically lose their licenses for one year if they fail to attend a drivers' rehabilitation program after being convicted of drunken driving in a bill cosponsored by Senator Ralph W. Hess, R-28th. "Drunken drivers are unquestionably the greatest hazard on our roads today," Hess said. "Thousands of innocent persons are maimed or killed in this country every year by people who are drunk and get behind the wheels of cars and attempt to drive." "We must put a stop to this, and though I don't think for a minute this bill is a cure-all, it is a step in the right direction," Hess said. He explained the bill requires a drivers' rehabilitation program of not less than 10 hours divided into four sessions. It will include lectures designed to emphasize the facts about drinking and driving behavior, the damage alcohol does to the brain and body, and alcohol abuse in general. "The bill states clearly that any person who fails to attend the entire course will have driving privileges revoked for one year in addition to any other period of revocation related to the initial offense," Hess explained. "This kind of legislation is long overdue," Hess said. "We must get tough with drivers who ignore their responsibilities and make them aware of just how dangerous drinking and driving can be."

Mr. Carroll is Lay Leader of the Chester congregation which is a 'mission church' undertaking a great work among the black population of that city. Included in the church's outreach, beside offering opportunities for worship and Christian education, are a tutorial program, a colorguard unit, athletic activities, and a clothing store where the poor can purchase items for a very minimal cost. All of these will be shared in word and picture. There will be an opportunity for questions and answers. St. Mark's Church has in the past shared financially in the support of the Chester congregation. One of St. Mark's missionaries, Miss Gertrude Bauer, who is serving at the Espanola Hospital in New Mexico, will visit with the congregation on Wednesday evening, April 30th, beginning at 6:45 p.m. She will talk to the children of the Bible School and then will share experiences with youth and adults. Miss Bauer is making this visit as a part of her brief spring vacation. The invitation to join in the information and inspiration of both of these evening programs is extended to all the members of the church, their families, and the Mount Joy Community.

FILM TO BE SHOWN AT TRINITY E.C.C.
A film, "My Son, My Son," the true story of a family, will be shown at Trinity Evangelical Congregational Church at Donegal and New Haven Streets, Mount Joy, on Sunday, April 27th at 2 and 7 p.m. Admission is free, and the public is invited.
