Roberts catches convict

Officer William Roberts of the Mount Joy Police Force was on his rounds last Friday when he noted a car moving around town in what struck Officer Roberts as a "suspicious manner."

Roberts followed the car which continued on its aimless way, then stopped and talked to the driver.

He eventually found out that the driver was wanted by the North Carolina police and had broken out of Raleigh State Prison this past January while serving an eleven-year sentence for breaking, entering, and theft.

The North Carolinian was taken to the Lancaster County prison where he is awaiting extradition proceedings.

There's a long, honorable tradition at stake this May 20... the tradition of good government for Lancaster County. Because over the years you the voter have cared enough to cast your ballot... cared enough to keep our local government uncommonly free of the shenanigans that have plagued other areas.

Vote. Because you can't afford to stop caring. And because these G.O.P. slated candidates are depending on your support.

Through the years he has become a well-known and highly respected member of the local governmental body. Active in many community organizations such as the Lititz Chamber of Commerce, the American Legion, B.P.O. Elks, Masons, Shriners, he still finds time to serve as Director of Heritage Center of Lancaster County, Director of Soil Conservation, and Director of Office of Aging. "Ideally, justice is administered swiftly, but also fairly... something we should never lose sight of in our drive to make the court systems more efficient. Because efficiency should not be the exclusive goal at the expense of due process. Each of these objectives is vital to our legal system. And I shall try to keep both in mind when following the inscription 'Equal justice under law,' which appears on the Supreme Court Building."

Paul A. Mueller, Jr.
For Judge of the Court of Common Pleas

"I'm resolved that frugality should be the byword when it comes to County spending. And you can be certain that as long as I'm in office, our funds from Federal Revenue Sharing will be spent Lancaster County style, and not Federal Government style."

Raymond G. Herr
For County Commissioner

"Let's face it. The County Commissioner's job is tough, demanding... a highly responsible position. And it should be filled by someone who regards public service as more than employment. Someone who can take the flak and still keep the County's best interests foremost. I know, I've been there."

Paul F. Paes
For County Commissioner

"An elected official should be a person deserving of public trust. We cannot afford to put anyone in office who has been known to break promises and who is interested only in his or her own financial gain. It is because of my strong conviction that the public must be faithfully served, that I chose to run for Prothonotary. And I'd like the people to know that, if elected, I'll be taking a cut in pay - so you can be sure I'm not in the race for the money."

Jacob L. Brown
For Prothonotary

"I understand the job of Sheriff, a job vital to County government. I will not establish a County Police Force with the Sheriff as its chief. I will not take away local control of local police forces. As Mayor of Elizabethtown, as a businessman for more than 20 years, and as a former combat Infantry Officer, I have gained valuable administrative and supervisory experience. This is what the Sheriff's Department needs."

Kenneth L. Reighard
For Sheriff
