BPW hears Steinhart

Dean Steinhart, Director of Secondary Education at Elizabethtown Area Schools was guest speaker for the April session of the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's Club.

Using as his topic, "Comparative Education," Steinhart compared American and Russian school systems and pupils after having toured the Soviet Union with 96 exchange educators. He stated that the Soviets are friendly, have few cars, (1 out of 100 persons), love American music, art, and are more religious than we are led to believe.

Mrs. Joan Betty, instructor of music at Lancaster Country Day School presented several vocal selections accompanied by Mrs. George Broske.

Mrs. Abram Weidman, chairperson of the Young Careerists program thanked her committee comprised of Mrs. Don Musser, Miss Darla Mason, Mrs. David Martin, Mrs. Robert Hopkins, Mrs. Lee Ellis and Mrs. Marie Staley.

Mrs. John Fry, first vice-president, conducted business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Gerald Sheetz. George Fitzkee, chairperson of the Lions Club pledges for eye donors to be used for transplants, appealed to the BPW for support of that project. Thomas Meckley, representing the local Bicentennial Committee, explained the progress thus far and the need for a committee from the above organization. Mrs. Thomas Meckley will serve as chairperson and will be assisted by Mrs. Abe Weidman, Mrs. Don Musser and Miss Joyce Evans.

Miss Marlene Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Hess, was introduced by Mrs. James Heilig, a member of the Personal Development Committee, as the girl of the month. Her mother was also a guest of the club.

In other business the first vice-president, Mrs. Fry, was elected as delegate to the BPW National Convention in Las Vegas, and Mrs. Earl Koser was elected as alternate.

Mrs. Bruce Brown was appointed as chairperson of the auditing committee and will be assisted by Mrs. Mike Pricio and Mrs. Barry Etsell.

Mrs. Patrick Crankshaw, Mrs. Banks Wagner and Mrs. Leslie Blake will arrange the program for the July clambake.

The club voted to sponsor a stand at Kunkle Field and a float for the community Memorial Day Parade and carnival.

The annual dinner-theatre party for BPW District No. 7 will feature BPW Follies on August 5th at the HOSt Farm. Mrs. Ben Horst, Jr. will serve as District chairperson and the Gibson Girls will represent the club.

The May meeting will be held Monday, 19th, at 6:30 p.m. at Hostetter's and is titled "Women in Religion." Annual chairmen reports and dues should be presented at this session.

Library launches drive

by Jean Hamilton

The Mount Joy Library Fund Drive has only collected $3,000 so far. Letters were sent to all businesses and organizations. It is hoped that their response will be forthcoming.

Anyone wishing to display pictures, paintings, artifacts, pottery or macramé at the library, please contact one of the workers at the library. Help to make your library a show-place or displayer of art.
