

Mrs. Hamilton receives award from Mrs. Fackler

Helen Hamilton Woman of the Year

by Cheryl Hallgren

The Mount Joy Joyceettes entertained the club women of the community at a tea on Sunday, May 4, at Hostetter's Banquet Hall. The women and their organizations were honored for their service and contributions to the community. Approximately one hundred women attended.

The highlight of the tea was the presentation of the Outstanding Woman of the Year Award by Joyceette President, Crystal Fackler, to Helen Hamilton. Mrs. Hamilton was chosen by a special committee consisting of two Joyceettes and several local citizens. Letters were sent to all organizations in the community requesting nominations for the award. Many nominations were received and were then submitted to the committee for evaluation.

Helen, wife of Gilbert Hamilton, lives at 308 South Market Ave., Mount Joy. She leads a very busy and active life, lending her time and efforts to helping others in her home, her neighborhood and in her community. Mrs. Hamilton was instrumental in the organization of Meals-on-Wheels program in Mount Joy. Each week she helps prepare the meals and to organize their distribution. She also serves as Executive Secretary of the program. Helen is President of the Women's Guild of Glossbrenner United Methodist Church and this year she and her husband co-chaired the congregational dinner at Glossbrenner. Mrs. Hamilton is a member of the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women.

At home Mrs. Hamilton is a licensed antique dealer and is also well-known to her neighbors as an avid gardener who is always willing to share her knowledge with them. She is also very concerned about the welfare of stray animals who appear in the neighborhood and tries to find homes for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton share their home on South Market Avenue with Mr. Hamilton's grandmother and Mrs. Hamilton's father.

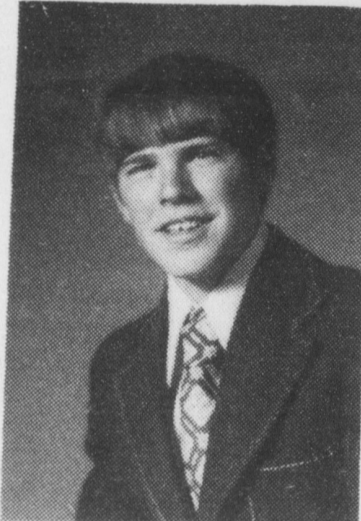

The Joyceettes who organized the writing and mailing of the nomination letters were Debra Newcomer, chairwomen, Lois Getty, Pat Sinegar and Harriet Ney.

The Joyceettes who organized the tea were: Cheryl Hallgren, chairwoman, Pat Moran, Sandra Gingrich, Patti Sinegar, Diana Blace, Jacquie McCurdy, Donna Wetzel, LaVon Harnish and Crystal Fackler.

Lauver, queen of May

Kim Lauver reigns as Queen of May

by Pam Horst

The 1975 May Queen for Donegal High School is Kim Lauver, 213 Mount Joy Street, Mount Joy.

Kim was crowned by Victoria Eichler, the 1974 Donegal May Queen, who was escorted by Jeffrey Sheetz, president of the senior class. Kim's escort was Rick Lucabaugh.

Miss Lauver's activities in school consist of dramatics club, chorus, and rhythm singers. Kim is well-known throughout the community for her tremendous talent in music. Besides playing the lead role in the summer theater production of "Ask Any Girl" Kim also played the lead role of Guinevere in the recent school musical, "Camelot." Her out of school activities include singing in the choir at St. Mark's United Methodist Church and membership in Lancaster Opera Workshop. Because music outshines any other interest of Kim's, she plans to make this her future. Besides enjoying music, Kim also likes horseback riding.

Members of the queen's court and their escorts were: Marica Aungst, Philip Houssal; Marlene Hess, Newton Kendig; Robin Wilkinson, Jim Gerberich; Francis Eno, Doug Mueller; Ann Houssal, John Weidman; Janet Sauder, Dave Schlosser, and Debra Drager, Rick Germer.
