Tonya Reincke and Mayor Gingrich

Mayor proclaims Poppy Day

Mayor James Gingrich has designated May 23rd as Poppy Day, 1975, in Mount Joy according to Mrs. Frankie N. Skibinski, Poppy Chairman, and Mrs. Betty Overly, President of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 185, which sponsors the annual observance.

Tonya Ann Reincke, Poppy Queen, 1975, presented Mayor Gingrich with the first official Poppy of 1975.

Tonya is the daughter of Mrs. Diane E. Reincke, Lancaster.

Poppy's will be on sale at the American Legion Unit 185 in Mount Joy throughout the entire month of May, and on the route of the annual Mount Joy Memorial Day Parade.

Dog likes watermelon

Susie, a 14-year-old German Shepherd dog owned by Edward S. Billett, Sr., Marietta, loves watermelon. She also likes carrots, tomatoes, bananas, apples, and celery.

Billett raised Susie ever since she was 3 days old nursing her with a baby bottle. Susie has apparently found a deep attachment to Billett, even to the point of liking the same kinds of food Billett likes.
