Letters to Editor

Dear Editor:

The April 30th issue of the Susquehanna Bulletin contained an example of your journalism which definitely lacked one of the prime requirements of first rate reporting, that being accuracy of facts!

Being a native of Marietta and living most of my 42 years on Front Street, I find some of your statements an irritating violation against my household and my neighbors who form a line from the east end to the west end. I know I have never lived in a slum area and actually never had the occasion to know of anyone who had that impression among my neighbors.

Surely the idea of being ashamed of my home or the area of its location would be most irrational. This last thought relates also to the so-called pre-restoration era.

In order to correct your false impressions, may I remind you that Front Street was never a line of dilapidated and condemned houses, and it never was a slum area in which the residents thereof were ashamed.

Perhaps you were referring solely to the general havoc as the result of the natural disaster called "Agnes?" If so, you neglected to state this fact in your article, and if you did, the inaccuracy would still prevail since only a small percentage were condemned as a result of the flood, and besides flood damage has positively no relation to the word "slum!"

Your editorial and bottom page sketch has caused quite a few people to resent your efforts. This could have been avoided if you would have utilized simple consideration of others and their property.

Personally, I feel your seemingly historical venture was executed in very poor taste, and certainly should not be looked upon with pride by the writer or the Bulletin Staff. I sincerely sense the composer of the article in question may not even be satisfied with his own home or its location!

In closing, I feel you should know that on the 8th of October, 1974, the Marietta Lions Club presented a Certificate of Appreciation to my family. The citation reads, "earned by exemplary dedication to the American ideal that an individual effort can shape a community; truly an inspiration to all!"

Sincerely,
Jack S. Frey

Welcome Wagon circus day

BOROUGH OF MARIETTA

The Borough of Marietta has received telephone approval for the employment of three maintenance men for the Department of Building, Roads, and Grounds and a clerk typist for the Police Department.

This is a federally funded program provided for by Title VI Comprehensive Employment Training Act and is designed to lessen the impact at the local level of the present economic situation.

Eligibility requirements for employment are:

1. Unemployed persons who have exhausted their

Unemployment Compensation benefits or who are not eligible for Unemployment Compensation benefits.

2. Persons who have been unemployed for 15 or more weeks.

3. Unemployed 30 days prior to application.

Applicants must be certified for eligibility by the C.E.T.A. office located at 225 N. Lime St., Lancaster, Pa.

It is anticipated that this program will continue until February 9, 1976 with a possibility for continuation past that date.

Marietta holds hobby show

by Elsie McClosky

A Hobby Show was held in the Community House in Marietta, on Monday afternoon, May 5th by the Marietta Senior League.

A lovely array of hobbies was exhibited by the members. These included paintings, baskets, tea pots, music boxes, old postcards, antiques pieces, dolls, glasses from many states, as well as overseas, hand painted china, ceramics, floral arrangements, handiwork momentos collected on various trips, hand knit items and crewell work.

The members voted for 'Best of Show'. The winners were: first prize, dolls, by Mrs. Mary Leithiser; second prize, teapots, by Mrs. Alice Frontman; third prize, baskets, by Mrs. Myrtle Mourter.

Lawyer John A. O'Brian was present and gave a very interesting discussion on wills. This was in the form of a question and answer program. The members answered the questions asked and then Mr. O'Brian gave the correct answer. It was thoroughly enjoyed by all and very helpful. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess committee composed of Mrs. Hilda Lucas, Mrs. Mary Leithiser, Mrs. Margie Arnold and Mrs. Ethel Drucks. Cut flowers, that were exhibited, were given as door prizes, and won by Mrs. Minnie Jeople and Mrs. Helen McElhenny.

Girl Scout news

"Let It Begin Here," a bicentennial celebration of the Witness Tree District of Penn Laurel Girl Scout Council, will be held on Saturday, May 17, at Manheim Park. The event is scheduled for 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The celebration centers on family life of the 1750-1790's period, with special emphasis on children's activities. Each troop in the district will re-enact or demonstrate some aspect of this family life. Some of the activities planned include rug braiding, noodle making, demonstration of herbs and early medicines, displays of rag dolls and corn husk dolls, folk dancing, children's games and stories, and flag making.

A tableau depicting scenes of early settlers will close the day's events. It will include three scenes with music and narration.

The celebration is open to the public with no admission charge. There will be an information booth at the entrance to the park where visitors may obtain a schedule of the day's events. Those attending are invited to bring picnic lunches if they desire.

Mrs. Eugene T. Johnston is Penn Laurel's Bicentennial Co-ordinator for Lancaster County. Mrs. Walter Forry is the Co-ordinator for Witness Tree District. She has been assisted by the following people: Mrs. Ray E. Miller, Elizabethtown Neighborhood; Mrs. John A. Condrak, Stiegel Rose Neighborhood; Miss Diane Rice, Donegal Neighborhood; Mrs. Charles Heisey, Hempfield Neighborhood; and Mrs. Ludwig Himpf, Riverview Neighborhood; Mrs. Donald H. Betty is the Director of the Bicentennial Tableau.

In case of rain, "Let It Begin Here" will be held at Manheim Central High School.

MOUNT JOY ART SHOW

The Mount Joy Community Art Show will be held May 24 and 25 at Phillips Art Studio on Concord avenue in Mount Joy.

On Saturday the hours will be from 10 a.m. till 6 p.m., on Sunday, from 1 to 6 p.m. All work must be brought to the Phillips Studio on Monday, May 19, from 2 to 6 p.m. All work must be original.

Paintings must be framed; sketches, watercolors, and pastels must be either mounted or framed.

Classes will be judged and prizes awarded in each class: sculpture, painting (oil or acrylics), watercolors, graphics, and pastels.

Further information can be obtained from Mrs. Sue Phillips, 653-1576.
