Dragon Dojo awards belts

The Dragon Dojo held its first formal promotion, Tuesday, May 6. Deb Kelly of Mount Joy and Dave Bailey of Manheim were awarded yellow and blue belts, respectively, after each had completed a one-hour physical test.

Miss Kelly's test consisted of performing three Katas (a form of shadow boxing) and defenses against an attacker. As her final test, Miss Kelly, who is 5' 4", had to freesparring against 6' 1" David Gerberich, an instructor at DD.

Dale Bailey's test consisted of performing four Katas, defenses against an attacker, and free-sparring against brown belt William Reuter, also an instructor at DD. As a final test, Mr. Bailey had to free-spar against three opponents at once. Bailey had been training in the art for close to two years.

The testing board consisted of three black belts: David Presto, chief instructor at DD, Cher Landis of Lancaster, and Roger Bradley, third degree black belt from Lancaster.
