

Marietta J-C's elect officers

The Marietta Jaycees will hold their Installation of Officers and Awards Banquet at Mr. Lacy's Lounge on Saturday, May 17.

Featured in the program will be the installation of the following men as officers for 1975-76: President - William R. Sload; Board Chairman - Richard Smedley, Jr.; Internal Vice President - Donald Simmons; External Vice President - Richard Sload; Internal Director - Jay Risser; External Director - John Spickler; Ways and Means Director - James Yeaglin; State Director - Thomas Lavin; Secretary - Ronald Morris; Treasurer - Donald Pickle, Jr.

All past and present Jaycees are invited. Tickets are $15.00 per couple and may be obtained by calling C. Willis Herr at 426-1805.

The evening will begin promptly at 6:00 p.m. with before dinner refreshment. This will be followed by dinner, the awards and installation ceremonies and a speech by Grant "Tic" Hurst who is known locally as one of the funniest speakers in Lancaster County.

Music for dancing will be provided by the Fat Cats and, for any hardy souls who are still ready to go when the music ends at 2 a.m., breakfast will be served at the Etownian Restaurant.

Donegal school regulations on corporal punishment

R. F. Hallgren, Superintendent of the Donegal Schools has informed Parents and Guardians of Donegal Students of Students Rights and Responsibilities as follows:

Corporal Punishment:

Corporal punishment shall be permitted in Donegal's schools.

Professional employees shall use such punishment with discretion.

This punishment shall be administered with a flat surface directed toward the buttocks of a student, by a member of the professional staff with another staff member witnessing the act.

Any professional staff member administering corporal punishment must file a written report to the administrator who is his/her immediate supervisor. Included in the report shall be the following information:

- a. name of student
- b. date

- c. time of day
- d. nature of offense
- e. name and signature of person administering punishment.

- f. name and signature of witness

Corporal punishment shall not be administered to a child whose parents have notified school authorities, in writing, that such disciplinary action is prohibited.

Any professional staff member may, however, use reasonable force even when a parent prohibits it, to quell a disturbance; when it is essential for self-defense; when it is necessary for the preservation of order; when it is necessary for the protection of other persons, and when it is needed for the protection of school property.

Reasonable force may also be used to obtain possession of weapons and other dangerous objects.

Secretaries conference

Among those attending the Annual Educational Secretaries Conference held at The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pa., May 1 - 3, were Mrs. Lillian Fry, Mrs. Virginia McKenna and Miss Patricia Wolfe of Marietta and Mount Joy, Secretaries in the Donegal School District.

The conference, a continuing education service of The Pennsylvania State University, was open to all persons engaged in secretarial and clerical work in the field of education. Theme of the conference was "The Success Intangibles for the Secretary." Mrs. Myrtle S. McDowell, Personnel Manager, Rockwell International, Pittsburgh, presented the keynote address. Lecturers, in addition to Mrs. McDowell, included Dr. John M. Steber ("Listening") and Mr. Blake D. Lewis, Jr. ("Motivation"), Assistant Professors of Management Development, Penn State University.

Dr. Schlosser to be honored

Lancaster County alumni of Elizabethtown College plan to honor Dr. Ralph W. Schlosser as a "Distinguished Lancaster County Alumnus" at a dinner in his honor on Saturday, May 17.

According to John D. Vogle of Lancaster, a chapter spokesman, the dinner will be held at the Brethren Village, where Dr. Schlosser and his wife now live. It begins at 6 p.m. and is open by reservation to alumni and friends of the College.

Dr. Schlosser has been associated with Elizabethtown since 1905 as a student, teacher and administrator.

He was a teacher from 1906 to 1927, dean of instruction from 1922 to 1927, and president from 1928 to 1941 when, at his own request, he relinquished the presidency to return to the classroom.

There, he remained until the spring of 1970, although he was given the title of President; Emeritus in 1962.

In 1971, Dr. Schlosser published a history of the institution, "History of Elizabethtown College 1899-1970," a project underwritten by the Women's Auxiliary.

Dr. Ralph W. Schlosser is the father of Dr. David E. Schlosser of Mount Joy.
