

Legion gives flags to schools

James B Heilig, chairman of the Americanism committee of W. S. Ebersole Post 185, Mount Joy, Department of Pennsylvania, American Legion, presented a Bicentennial 'Bennington' flag to the Washington School In Mount Joy last Friday morning. The flag was accepted for the school by Ragnar F. Hallgren, Jr.,

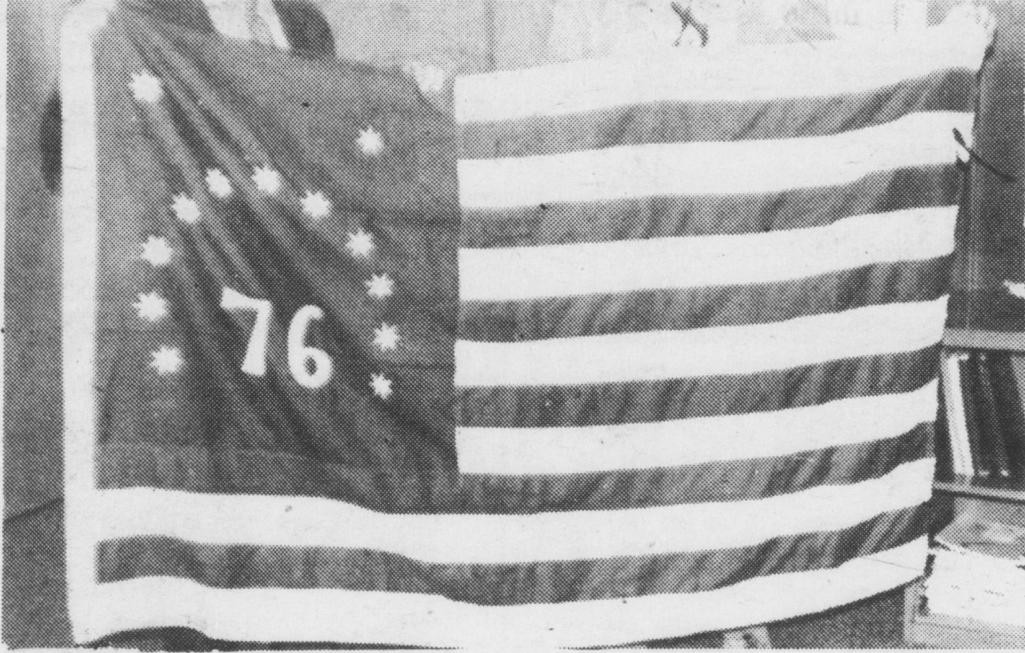

Superintendent of the Donegal School District.

The historic 'Bennington' flag was previously presented to all the other six schools in the Donegal District. The flags will fly outdoors throughout the Bicentennial celebration 1975-76.

The Ebersole Post has supplied flags for all the classrooms in the district, contributing a whole new set when the flag acquired 50 stars with addition of Alaska and Hawaii as states. The local Legion has also provided the large flag and its automatic spotlighting in the Donegal High gymnasium, as well as spotlights for the outdoor flags at schools.

The flag and spotlight for it atop the borough building in Mount Joy are the gift of the Legion.

Youtz wins scholarship

Jane Youtz, who was such a smashing success as Morgan LeFay in 'Camelot', has been awarded a scholarship in the Pennsylvania Governor's School for the Arts at Bucknell University this summer.

Jane says, 'I'm really excited! This means I'll head for the theater arts in college. It makes me feel I have a little talent—and now I'll really work hard to develop it.'

Jane will be studying dramatic arts at Bucknell from July 11 to August 16.

Mrs. Beatrice Heller, coordinator of I.U. 13, sponsored Jane in the scholarship competition.
