Serious error in Bulletin

Charles W. Heaps

Recently, the Susquehanna Bulletin acquired a new typesetting machine which will greatly facilitate their operations. First, however, the staff must become fully familiar with the machine. Because of unfamiliarity with it, a large number of typographical errors have been made in the past two weeks.

The most serious of these errors was the mislabeling of a picture of the late Charles W. Heaps, which appeared on the front page of last week's issue. Heaps, who was killed in action in Vietnam, was referred to in the headline as 'John W. Heaps'.

The Bulletin apologizes to Heaps' family and friends for this error.

Spring Safari

by Hazel Baker

A profit of more than $400 was realized from the second annual 'Spring Safari', a gourmet food tasting benefit with the proper wine accompaniment held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller and sponsored by the Marietta Branch Auxiliary to the Columbia Hospital.

Mrs. Joe Gilmartin, president, conducted the business session held at the home of Mrs. Robert Heistand, Maytown; Mrs. Harold Drager was co-hostess. Mrs. Joe Carroll offered the Devotions in the absence of the chaplain. Mrs. William Heisey. 'Let Us Remember Memorial Day' and a Memorial Day Prayer were the titles of the opening service.

All members will be contacted for dues during this membership month. The June meeting on the 9th will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Youtz and will be a memorial service to those members who have passed away this year.

D.H.S. graduates' plans for future
