SAINT. MARK'S AUCTION TO BENEFIT YOUTH
Four young persons, three high school seniors and a junior from the Donegal High School, will be spending 10 days this summer in the Dominican Republic on a Teen Project sponsored by the Christian Medical Society. Newt Kendig, Sharon Grissinger, Judy Keller and Michael Kohler of Mount Joy and members of St. Mark's United Methodist Church have been selected to journey to the West Indies to engage in Medical Group Mission there on a Teen Outreach Team. The dates are August 12 through 21.

In order to help defray the expenses of such a trip for the young people, the youth of the St. Mark's congregation are holding a public auction in the rear of the church on Saturday, May 31st, beginning at 10 A.M. Mr. Harold Keller, a member of St. Mark's Church and well-known local auctioneer will conduct the sale; youth of the church will assist him. A food sale will also be held simultaneously in the church's fellowship hall under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Greenwalt and Mrs. Kitty Poegruff. For those who wish to eat at the sale, barbecues, hotdogs and sauerkraut will be available together with soft drinks and coffee.
Anyone wishing to offer good items for the sale either on a direct gift or commission basis should contact the church office (653-5493). Food items like baked goods, salads etc. should be brought to the church early in the day.
The proceeds from this auction will be used in their entirety to help pay for the unusual opportunity afforded these fine young people to be in mission this summer.
