

Bicentennial dinner made by students

by Mrs. Brenda Kindbon

On May 20, 1975, one of my freshman America Cultures classes planned and prepared a bicentennial dinner. The students researched the recipes themselves, as well as doing all of the cooking. Judy Sheetz and Sally Reisinger were in charge of the fruit cup which was made of fresh apples, oranges, bananas, and cherries. Eleanor Rapp and Dortha Saude were responsible for cooking fifteen pounds of roast beef. Sliced baked potatoes, corn, and green beans helped to complete the menu with apple cider and juice as a beverage.

A special treat was homemade bread baked by April Richards, Wendy Prescott, and Frances Lilly. As a grand finale, dessert consisted of homemade Cherry, Apple, Pumpkin and Shoofly pies baked by Melanie Pobon, April Richards, Holly Spence and Sandy Shearer. Of course no pie is complete without homemade ice cream which was made by Keith Pietsch, Holly Spence and Patty Sheetz.

To provide some of the colonial atmosphere, the cooks, including Kathy Moyer, wore long dresses and aprons. The aprons were made by Sue Pickle, Lori Richards, Betty Slesser, and Nancy Stehman. They also made tablecloths to decorate the tables and embroidered them. Afterwards, everyone agreed it was a successful evening. All the students donated food and pitched in to help for an evening which provided a tremendous learning experience for them.

She is a resident of Valparaiso, where her hus-

Book to be published on Mount Joy

by Cheryl Hallgren

The Mount Joy Bicentennial Committee under the leadership of Paul and Vera Gingrich held its monthly meeting on Wed., May 14 at the Boro Hall.

Patricia Moran, chairperson of the Heritage committee reported that a booklet about Mount Joy will be published for 1976. It will include pictures from the past and a written history of the town. Mrs. Moran's committee will be meeting on Wednesday, June 11, at 8:30 at the Boro building to begin organizing the publication. Anyone wishing to help with this project is invited to attend.

Chairperson of the Festivities Committee, Larry Gainer reported that the Jaycees are planning a carnival for the Bicentennial celebration and other organizations are being contacted to sponsor projects during 1976.

Gloria Straub listed several suggestions proposed by the Future committee. They are: the changing of the name Mount Joy to Mountjoy, which would require the placing of this question on the November ballot, the designing of a Boro flag and seal, the sale of 1776 trees with a plaque noting the Bicentennial year and several other projects still in the planning stages.

The next meeting of the Bicentennial Committee will be held at the Boro Hall on Wednesday, June 11 at 8:00 p.m. The public is invited to attend.
