Aged get help with chores

Do you have chores that need doing, but are somehow a little more difficult this year than last?

The Lancaster County Office of Aging is now offering a program that can be an answer to your problem.

Help in housecleaning is available. Washing windows, cleaning woodwork, cleaning up the yard, painting, small carpentry jobs, even lawn mowing are among the services offered.

To be eligible for service from the Office of Aging, you must be 60 years old or more and not living with an able bodied relative who could do the work. Requests for service can be made at the Lancaster County Office of Aging, CAP Outreach centers, or the nutrition sites. Or you can phone 229-2547 (Office of Aging) collect and ask for Mrs. Dorothy Reinhart.

The work will be done by a team of 2 youth supervised by a knowledgeable senior citizen. The Office of Aging is now taking applications for the 10 positions of supervisors, both men and women. People applying must be over 60, have a car, able and willing to work with youth and knowledgeable about home chores, including some carpentry and painting.
