School budget okayed

Donegal School Board will hold a special meeting today at noon when, it is expected, they will approve the proposed budget of $3.9 million for 1975-76, including a 17 mill increase in property taxes, bringing the property tax to 92 mills.

A $5 occupational privilege tax, to be charged of everyone working within the school district area, has been recommended for 1975-76.

On the advice of their solicitor, K. L. Shirk, Jr., the board decided not to buy 18 acres of land available at Marietta Depot. A secondary school requires 20 acre plus an additional acre for each 100 students.

The board decided to discontinue the driver improvement class held in the high school.

The registration of Mrs. Margaret G. Brown, junior high home economics teacher, was accepted.

Glenn Forwood, Mount Joy, was appointed to replace retiring Walter Brandt as custodian at Grandview.

Quality Lines, Inc., was awarded a contract for removing refuse at $320 per month during the school year and $40 a month during the summer.

Boro asks for $33,877

The Mount Joy Borough Council balanced and approved the Federal Revenue Sharing budget request for the amount of $33,877, for 1975-76.

Larger items in the request are: $8,000 for Project 500 park improvement, Phase II; $5,500 for Lawn tractor Hustler (1); $4,300 for 1976 police cruiser; $4,000 for storm sewer study; $2,700 for street program; $1,510 for police training at HAAC.

A contract for street resurfacing was awarded to B.R. Kreider and Sons, Manheim, R.D.1, for the low bid of $18,108.84. The same company was awarded a contract for reconstructing Plum Street from Main to Church streets for a bid of $15,850.25.

Frederick Heagy, Bruce Avenue, was appointed to the Borough Planning Commission to replace Donald Fellenbaum, who has resigned.

Fed. money for sewer

Mount Joy Township will receive federal money in financing its proposed sewer project.

Chairman Charles G. Bailey of the township authority stated that the federal government will pay 75 per cent of construction costs; if the project meets all state and federal requirements.

The state Department of Environmental Resources had assigned the local sewer project high priority for federal aid, and granted permission to begin construction.

Since the project will cost between $3.5 and 5.1 million, total federal aid could reach 3.8 million.

Sewer will be located in most densely populated areas of the township, on the Elizabethtown side of Route 283.

The new systems cannot go into operation until the Elizabethtown borough sewage plant has been expanded. Expansion of the E-Town plant is about to begin.

Fed. money for houses

Old homes in Mount Joy may be rebuilt with assistance from the county redevelopment authority.

Mount Joy Borough Council has asked that some of the $400,000 in Federal money allocated to rehabilitation in Lancaster County be spent in renovating

Mount Joy homes.

It is expected that $10 million in Federal money will be available for Lancaster County within the next six years. The money is authorized by the Housing and Community Development Act.

Work could begin after July 1.

Parents to meet in Maytown

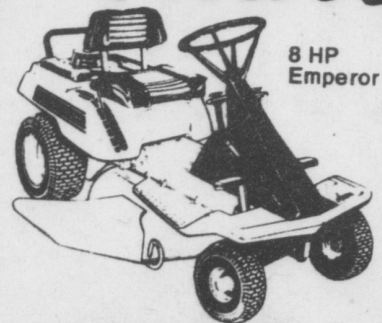

Concerned parents and teachers will meet at the Maytown School, Thursday, June 26 at 7 p.m. to discuss the playground program and other school-community happenings.

The public is urged to attend.
