

Mr. and Mrs. Richwine

Richwines celebrate fiftieth anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Richwine and members of the Nutrition Site for the Aged, Columbia, entertained in honor of the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. David Richwine, 166 W. Market St., Marietta, at the Marietta Community House, Sunday. David Richwine and the former Ruth McKain were married at the home of the brides parents on June 22, 1925. Harry Richwine, was best man for his brother; matron of honor was Mrs.

Miriam Eater Campbell, and flower girl was Ruth Wittel Simmons. Elizabeth Tuma Good was pianist. Fifty guests were present for the wedding, which was performed by the late Rev. Lee West.

The couple has one son, Gerald and two grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Geroge Morrow, managers of the Nutrition Site arranged a party in honor of the couple Friday, at St. John's Lutheran Church, Columbia.

Mount Joy conducts study of fire companies

Mount Joy Borough is conducting a study of the financial support of the Friendship and Florin fire companies, which are located in the Borough.

The study will analyze the services provided by the two fire companies within Mount Joy Borough and also within neighboring municipalities: Rapho, East Donegal, West Donegal, Mount Joy townships, also Elizabethtown and Marietta boroughs.

The study will compare services provided to each neighboring municipality with its financial contributions to the two Mount Joy fire companies.

Carl Hallgren presides

Incoming president of the Rotary Club in Mount Joy, Carl Hallgren, held a meeting with the new board of directors.

Fund-raising and social projects for the coming year were the main topics of discussion.

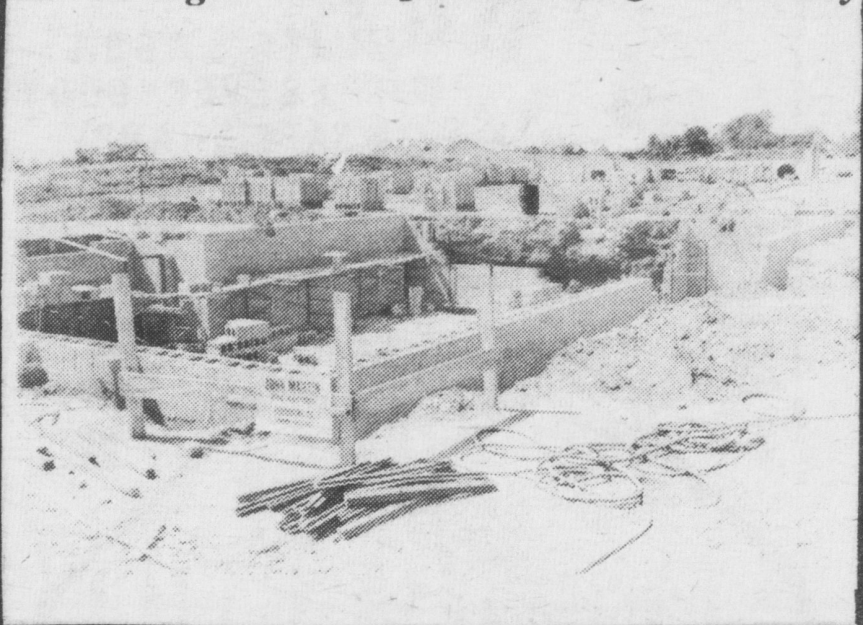

A Mount Gretna project will be investigated by Albert C. Newlin. A Rotary Year Book was also discussed. The big social event for the year will be the fiftieth anniversary of the Club to be celebrated November 1 at Hershey with the Elizabethtown and Lititz clubs.

Jay Greider is going to paint the two blue and gold signs at each end of Mount Joy. A representative from Rotary to the Bicentennial Committee will be appointed.

On July 1, Clayton Garrett will address the club on the subject of "Scouting."

The Club Assembly will be held on July 8.

E. Donegal Municipal Building underway

Fire crew starts hall

Ground will be broken for a new building for the Elizabethtown-Mount Joy Forest Fire Crew on Saturday, June 28, at 2:30p.m. (Rain date: June 30, 7p.m.)

Site of the ground-breaking ceremonies is the intersection of Cloverleaf and Green Tree Church Roads.

The building will measure 50 by 45 feet, will house equipment, fire trucks, and will include a kitchen, meeting room, and rest rooms.

Participating in the ceremonies will be Harry Cooper, Jr., president of the Mount Joy Township Supervisors; Kenneth L. Reighard, mayor of Elizabethtown; James A. Gingrich, mayor of Mount Joy; Forest Fire Crew officers, and officers of Forest Fire Auxiliary.

The block building will be painted colonial green with white trimming and will be surrounded by evergreens.

At present the crew's trucks are housed free of charge on John Garber's farm in upper Mount Joy Township.

The Elizabethtown-Mount Joy Forest Fire Crew will begin a fund-raising campaign on July 1 in rural areas only, not in the towns.

The work on the new building will be voluntary. Local Businesses are supplying material and labor.

Anyone may send a contribution to: The Building Fund, Union National Mount Joy Bank, Mount Joy, Pa., 17552.

Taylor wins a promotion

Dr. Philip Taylor, a resident of Mount Joy, was recently promoted to assistant professor of psychology and social science at Penn State Capitol Campus.

Local crafts to be listed

The Lancaster County Bicentennial Committee and the Conestoga Chapter of the Pennsylvania Guild of Craftsmen are cooperating on a Bicentennial project to compile a Craft Directory of county craftspersons willing to share their work at local or county Bicentennial events.

All craftspersons in any field or style are asked to add their names to the list. Spinners, quiltmakers, silversmiths, jewelry-makers, candlemakers, wood turners, cabinet makers, potters or other craftspersons are asked to call: Mrs. Nelda Shoemaker, 393-3266; or Mrs. Marion Faulkner, 569-1117; or write BARRICK, Box 5153, Lancaster, PA 17601.

Richard D. Faulkner, president of the Conestoga Chapter of the Pennsylvania Guild of Craftsmen expects to complete the directory in August. Deadline for the information is June 30, 1975.

RICHARD C. PARKER GRADUATES FROM INDIANA U. OF PA.

Richard Charles Parker, of R.D. 1, Mount Joy, received his B. S. Ed. in Mathematics from Indiana University of Pennsylvania. Parker graduated this May, in a class of 1435.

Foreign Car Owners!

Finally
A repair specialist
you can trust.
right in Mount Joy.

Now you don't have to waste
time, travel, and money on repairs.

We also offer:

1975 GMC 3/4 ton truck, auto., P.S., P.B., Radio, 10,000 miles.	$4995
1973 TORONADO CP. P.S., P.B., P.W., Air cond., AM-FM stereo.	$3895
1973 COMET CP. V-8, Auto., P.S., V-Roof, Radio	$2795
1971 VW-BUG AM-FM., 4 speed	$1895
1971 FAIRLANE '500' CP. 1 owner, V-Roof, P.S., Auto., Radio	$1695
1970 NEWPORT 4 Dr. HT., 1 owner, V-Roof, Air cond., P.S., P.B., Auto., Radio	$1695
1969 OLDS Cutlass 4 Dr. HT., Radio, Vinyl Roof, auto., P.S., P.B., P.W., Air cond.	$1695

Mon. - Sat. - 7 to 9; Sun. - 9 to 9

MOUNT JOY CITGO Service Station

Locally Owned

Abe Weidman

964 Main Street, Mount Joy Phone: 653-1104

Splendid Sundaes

At Our
OLD FASHIONED ICE CREAM PARLOR

Milk
$1.15 gal.
60¢ 1/2 gal.

Equally Splendid
Shakes
Banana Splits
Sandwiches
Cones

RIDGE VIEW FARMS

RIDGE VIEW ROAD ELIZABETHTOWN

OPEN: Monday thru Thursday - 9 A.M. to 10 P.M.

Friday & Saturday - 9 A.M. to 11 P.M.

Closed Sundays

PHONE 367-2286