

Mrs. Eugene Barton

Cynthia Rinehart becomes bride of Eugene Barton

Miss Cynthia Sue Rinehart and Mr. Eugene Barton were married at 11:30a.m. June 28, in a garden wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Newcomer of Mount Joy. Mrs. Newcomer is the sister of the bride. Rev. Donald Whitesel officiated at the marriage.

Miss Rinehart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rinehart of 117 N. Barbara St in Mount Joy, and was graduated from Donegal High School. She is employed by Armstrong Cork (Marietta Ceiling Plant) in the office.

Mr. Barton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barton, 221 W. Walnut St, Marietta. He graduated from Donegal High School and Willow Street Votech and is now employed at Geib's Body Shop in Manheim.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a floor-length gown of organza over lily print taffeta, with a scoop neck and long, sheer sleeves.

Debra Newcomer, the bride's sister, was the matron of honor. The groom's brother, Steven Barton, served as best man. A reception was held at Groff's Farm Restaurant after the ceremony.

Mr. and the new Mrs. Barton plan to live in Manheim.

Circle Creek holds picnic

Last Wednesday evening more than 100 members of the Circle Creek Farm Swim Club got together at picnic near the pool off Route 441 east of Marietta.

Organized only last summer, the club is headed by President Mary Jane Demmy. Thirty local families make up the membership and can swim every day at the pool.

Many more activities are planned for the remainder of the summer, including another picnic and 50's dance for adults.

DID YOU HEAR....

Dan and Dave Dietrick, of Marietta, who are 8 and 10 years old, came home last week with a genuine Susquehanna River Snapping turtle which had been presented to them by grandpa Richard Tate. The turtle promptly laid 9 eggs—on grandpa's birthday, as it happened.

We will bring you the next installment of this story when they hatch!

A letter to the Bulletin

Dear Editor;

As a former resident of Mount Joy I appreciate reading the paper—there are many things of interest in it, including news of former residents. Also the full obituaries of those who have passed on interests me.

The recent article "Who is Father?", by John E. Rivermoore, was very good. Looking into "empty vaults" with stained glass windows can be very true.

I also liked Chester Wittell's poem on the old railroad station of Mount Joy. The old-timers would remember Dan Kramer and John Lawrence who seemed to move so slowly and yet met every train on time for loading and unloading baggage. To me, the last verse of Wittell's poem is just beautiful:

"And ghostly whispers fill the mid-night hull Of coming trains that pass and vanish there."
