

Gerald Alleman gets Scouter's Training Award

On Friday, July 2, 1975, Mr. Donald E. Gingrich, Chairman of the Boy Scouts of American, Lancaster/Lebanon Council, Western District Leadership Training Committee, presented Gerald Alleman with the Scouter's Training Award. This award was earned by completing these courses: Cornerstone Outdoor Experience, Adult and Troop Leader Skills. Jerry also served as Merit Badge Counselor, Coach/Counselor, Troop Committee Member and a Roundtable Staff member, where he compiled and printed a set of 18 Mini Guides which are being used in the Training Program. He also served as an Assistant Scoutmaster in order to earn this training award.

This was the third recognition received from the Western District by Mr. Alleman in the last several months. On April 26 he was awarded the District Award of Merit along with Mr.

Rufus Bleecher from Mount Joy. Also, in May Mr. Gingrich presented a Plaque of Recognition to Harold Etsell and Gerald Alleman for service on the Roundtable Staff in 1974 and 1975.

Jerry, who is the manager of the local G. C. Murphy store in Mount Joy, outlined his future Scouting activities; he plans to attend the J. Edward Mack Scout Reservation in August to serve as an Assistant Scoutmaster along with Elwood Myers of Manheim under Scoutmaster Clayton Garret, Jr. Western District Executive Provisional Camp. He will also continue on the Roundtable Staff under the leadership of Mr. Art Lord of Lancaster. He will assist Mr. Donald Gingrich from Lancaster on organization of new units and working with units that may need special assistance. Next summer he would like to attend a Woodbadge Training Program which is the final training for a volunteer scouter.

History is repeated at Maytown Reformed Sunday, 210 years after first recorded baptism

The first recorded event at Maytown Reformed Church was the baptism of George Alinger on July 13, 1765.

This past Sunday, on the same day in July, the 13th, John Charles Landis, Jr. was baptized, exactly 210 years later.

Maytown Reformed is celebrating its 210th anniversary this year.

John Charles Landis, Jr.,

is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Landis, Sr., and was baptized by the pastor, the Rev. Paul N. Marsteller.

Mrs. Landis is the former Eva Glattacker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Glattacker, Sr., of Maytown.
