Mrs. Brubaker, Queen of Kitchen, nominated by daughter Barbara

Mrs. Mildred (Clarence B.) Brubaker, Mount Joy R.D. 1, is the Susquehanna Bulletin's first Queen of the Kitchen.

She was nominated by her daughter Barbara, who wrote us the following letter:

Dear Editor:

As soon as I saw the article for the "Queen of the Kitchen" contest, I knew I had to enter my mom, Mrs. Clarence B. Brubaker.

She, in my opinion, is the best cook in the world. She spends many hours in the kitchen making sure we always have something good to eat.

My favorite dessert of her's is her homemade cherry pie. It's simply, the best. And it's made from her homecanned cherries.

That's another thing, My Mom spends a great deal of the summer canning and freezing our home-grown vegetables so we have lots of good food to eat in the winter.

I not only vote for my mom as the best cook but also the hardest working cook. Please enter my mother, Mrs. Mildred Brubaker in your contest for Queen of the Kitchen.

Thank You,
Barb Brubaker

And here is Mrs. Brubaker's recipe for her cherry pie.

No-Roll Pie Crust

1½ C flour in pie pan
½ t salt in pie pan

½ C oil
2 T milk

Stir oil and milk vigorously and pour over mixture of flour and salt and shape into crust

Cherry Filling

1 qt. home-canned semi-sweet cherries

½ C sugar

2 T corn starch

Drain cherries' juice in saucepan. Add sugar and bring to boil. Thicken with 2 T corn starch. Fold in cherries. Set aside to cool.

Crumbs for Topping

2¼ C flour

1 C sugar

1 stick oleo — ¼ C

Mix together until crumbly. Fill pie shell with cherry filling. Sprinkle with desired amount of crumbs. Bake 400° F., 35—40 min. (or still bubbly).

The Brubakers have three daughters:

Linda, who teaches third grade in the Solanco District and who is taking graduate work this summer at Millersville;

Barbara (who nominated her mother for Queen), a senior at Houghton College, Houghton, N.Y., who is working this summer at Stehman's IGA store after returning from a trip to Puerto Rico; and

Carol, a senior at Donegal High School, who runs the Donut Hole there and is statistician for the basketball team.

Mount Joy Athletic Association plans John "Mouse" Myers Day

Sunday, July 27th, will be John "Mouse" Myers Day in Mount Joy. Myers, former fire chief of Friendship Fire Co. and umpire of innumerable midget baseball games, died of cancer late this past spring.

He will be honored by a series of midget baseball games at the Park in Mount Joy, sponsored by the Mount Joy Athletic Association, headed by President Walter Gallagher.

Chances are being sold for 50 cents on such prizes as a two-day stay at Howard Johnson's on the Columbia Pike for a family of four, chicken dinners, T-burgers, $5 gift certificates, free fuel oil, sporting goods, jackets, cast iron soldiers, etc. Prizes were donated by local merchants.

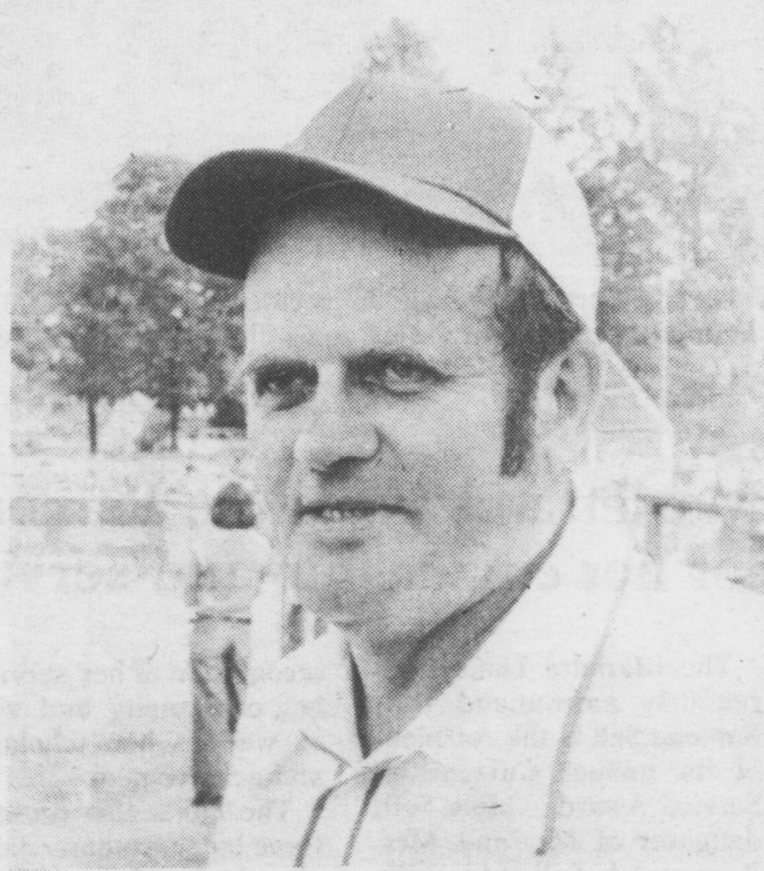

Proceeds from the lottery will go to the Myer's family.

The Athletic Association has already held a bake sale and may hold another, to aid the Myer's family.

A fund has been set up at Union National Mount Joy Bank in honor of Myers. Individuals can make a direct contribution to the John "Mouse" Myers Fund at the bank.
