Philip Good, drum major

by Hazel Baker

Philip Good, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Good, R. D. #1, Mount Joy, new drum major for the Donegal High School Band, has just returned from a week at drum major camp at Kutztown State College. Phil received intensive training and instruction while attending Kutztown from Mr. A. R. Casavant, a well known authority in the area on drum majoring.

The Donegal High School Junior is also a member of the Chorus and participated in the production, "Camelot". He is a member of Dramatics Club; stage band, in which he plays trumpet; and the soccer team. Good is also a member of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy.

Good will assume the leadership of the musicians when the Donegal Band attends a week of camp at Gettysburg College from August 18 through August 23. Guest conductors, baton instructions, and show routines will be among the activities offered to prepare for the coming school year. Glen Leib is director of the program.

Kids organize benefit carnival to fight muscular dystrophy

Four elementary school children in Marietta - Blaine Garber, Tom McKain, Michael Nagle, and Donna Tilly - staged a benefit carnival last Saturday in Nagle's backyard, to raise money to fight muscular dystrophy.

Set up around the yard were roulette wheels, penny and nickel throws, baseball throws, a store, and old book sale, etc.

They netted $20.80.

Prizes and items for the store were contributed by Columbia Hardware, the Marietta 5 & 10, McFarland's Grocery, and Billmeyer's Jewelry.

For their efforts in the fight against muscular dystrophy, the four sponsors will receive free tickets to a Phillies-Expos game in September.
