

Yearling Baby Beef at Lower Prices!

This week your friendly Weis Markets have an alternative to high beef prices. . . We've made a special purchase of grass-fed yearling beef. Because it's leaner than mature grain fed beef, it's lower in fat and it's much lower in price.

You can also choose from our regular selection of Weis Tender ✓ Chek Beef, but while supply lasts this week you have a choice of type of beef and price.

As always, Weis Markets unconditionally guarantees satisfaction or your money refunded.

HOW TO PREPARE BABY BEEF

WE RESERVE THE RIGHT TO LIMIT QUANTITIES

Sirloin, T-Bone and Porterhouse steaks should be brushed with melted butter, oleo or oil before broiling or pan frying.

Cuts from Chuck and Round should be browned, seasoned and moist cooked at 300 to 325 degrees for 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 hours, depending on size.

Rib Roasts and Shoulder roasts should be cooked at 300 to 325 degrees in the oven to an internal temperature of 170 degrees and should be basted several times during cooking.
