LEGAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the following is Paragraph THIRD of the last will and testament of Elizabeth Eppley, Deceased, who resided at 235 West Market Street, Marietta, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, and all persons having rendered services to the decedent as defined in Paragraph THIRD of the Will of the decedent and wishing to file a claim against the estate as a beneficiary shall notify the Executor, Roy Smith, c/o Nikolaus & Hohenadel, Attorneys, One North Waterford Avenue, Marietta, Pennsylvania, 17547, or by filing a claim with the Clerk of the Orphans' Court of Lancaster County, c/o Lancaster County Court House, King and Duke Streets, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, no later than August 28, 1975:

"THIRD: If the said Anna E. Nagle shall predecease me, I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real and personal, to such persons or person who shall take care of me and nurse me, and look after my comfort during my last sickness, illness or any incapacity, and who sees or see to it that I am properly nursed, cared for, and given proper medical attention during such last sickness, illness or incapacity, and that I am given a decent burial after my decease. If more than one person qualifies hereunder, then such persons who qualify hereunder shall share in the residue of my estate equally."

This notice by publication is given pursuant to an Order of the Court of Common Pleas of Lancaster County, Orphans' Court Division.

CHILDREN'S THEATER AT MIDDLETOWN

The Penn State-Capitol Campus Players will present a children's play "Animagination" on Tuesday, August 12, at 1:00 p.m. in the auditorium of the school's main building in Middletown.

According to Lynn Papa, one of the students who will perform in the play, "Animagination" is a gathering of three short plays: "A Bug of Some Importance", "Small Pig", and "Good Neighbors".

The play is part of a course in children's drama taught by Robert Miller. Miller is director of the Children's Theatre of York.

Admission is free, open to the public and is for children of all ages.

MANHEIM FIRE CO.

The Manheim Fire Company will hold its annual carnival on August 15 and 16.

Entertainment on Friday will be The Al Slade Show and on Saturday it will be The John Enck Show.

There will gate prizes, games, prizes, rides for adults and children, and plenty of good food.

Admission will be by donation.

The fire company describes the event as "two great days of fun and entertainment."

Different people have mentioned to the Bulletin at various times - that it would be convenient for them to have a place to drop off news for us, both in Mount Joy and in Marietta.

Well, this week there will be places in both towns where people can drop off news, without having to mail it.

In Mount Joy news may be put in the Susquehanna Bulletin Box at Kline's Store at 54 West Main Street.

In Marietta news items may be put in the Bulletin box at Edgar Appley's News Agency at 110 West Market Street.

To be sure of publication in the paper that comes out the following Wednesday, news should be placed in the boxes by the preceding Saturday.

Renew your subscription

The Bulletin has mailed subscription renewal notices to readers whose subscriptions have expired.

Most readers whom we notified have renewed their subscriptions, but a few have not.

We urge readers whom we have notified to renew their subscriptions promptly so that they will not miss receiving future issues of the Bulletin.

Please send me The Susquehanna Bulletin weekly (50 issues per year) for one year. $4.00 enclosed.
