TOUR

historic A. Bube's Brewery & Catacombs,

"National Register of Historic Places"
"Registered Historical Landmark"

Well informed tour guides explain the many facets of brewing in the upper and lower levels of Lancaster County's oldest brewery. Giant vats are still in place within the Lagering Cellar. The fermented brew was placed in wooden casks in order to age for a period of 30 days before being drawn off into smaller kegs which were stored 43 feet below the street surface. Temperature remains around 50 degrees year around in the Catacombs.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelley Shellenberger

Last Thursday was Holstein Field Day at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Shelley Shellenberger, Mount Joy, R.D. 1.

The annual event is sponsored by the Lancaster County Holstein Association.

The Shellenbergers were hosts for the day to more than 200 people, who came for the friendly fun and food, an also to learn more about judging Holstein cattle.

The excellent menu served included plenty of barbecued chicken. A good portion of the dessert was provided by Lee (Mrs. James) Bickford, who baked a 4 by 2 foot cake decorated with a Holstein cow against a green meadow and blue sky.
