House at Manheim and Barbara Streets, being considered for museum for Mount Joy Area Historical Society

Council voted to lease the house it owns on the edge of the park at Manheim and Barbara Streets to the Mount Joy Area Historical Society. The Society would be expected to improve the property and restore the building which is nearly a hundred years old, and use it as a museum.

Bicentennial walk to Chiques postponed

by Hazel Baker

Members of the Susquehanna Bicentennial Committee met in the Marietta Community House, Thursday night. The group postponed the Chiques Rock walk until spring.

Dennis Shumaker, president conducted the session. Plans for the Bicentennial Ball were formulated. Committee chairpersons for the event which will be held in April will be Food- Mrs. Robert Spangler; Tickets- Mrs. Ralph Youtz; Costumes- Patrick Abel and Mike Cohan; and Decorations- Mrs. Mike Abel. Instructors will teach dance steps of the Colonial era and possibly a King and Queen Contest will be featured. Suggestion boxes will be placed with merchants in the area for the residents to bring their thoughts to the organization and for volunteers to offer their services.

The September 4th meeting will be in Maytown and the October session at the Donegal Church. Each person attending these sessions is requested to bring another interested person.

Christian Women hear Dave Brubaker

by Hazel Crankshaw

A Mt. Joy man, embarking on a unique Christian ministry, was featured in music and message at last week's Christian Women's Club. David Brubaker's beautiful vocal numbers and clear gospel message highlighted a splendid meeting attended by 309 women, at Myer Dining Hall, Elizabethtown College.

Hummelstown Mfg. Co., with an outlet store in Elizabethtown, presented a fashion show of fall clothing for children. Mrs. Carmella Barr presented the showing and children of CWC members modeled. Those charmers were: Lisa Hoffman, Mindy Nentwig, Corey Enck, David Ober, Hetty and Bronda Byers, Anthony Sottesanti, and Tom Mann. Prizes, given by the store, were won by Margie Hertzler, Ethel Barker, and Odette Stone.

Evelyn Hershey and Hazel Crankshaw presented a skit to encourage women to plan to attend the Area Conference to be held October 17 to 19 at Pocono Manor Inn.

Next meeting is scheduled for September 3 at Hostetter's in Mount Joy.

Dr. Richard Ulrich, Surgeon from Harrisburg, will speak. Mary Kanoff, Maytown, will be the soloist, and the special feature, "When in Hawaii" will be presented by Anne Hinkel, Asst. Home Economist of Lancaster County.

Members will be called for reservations. Others wishing to attend may call Verna Hostetter, 653-5155, or Hilma Mumma, 367-2612 before August 29. Nursery will be provided at the Mount Joy Mennonite Church.

The club's monthly Prayer Coffee will be held August 26 at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Frances Greiner, 251 Park Ave., Mount Joy. Members are urged to attend.

New students should register

The Donegal School District is encouraging all students planning to enter district schools for the first time on September 3, 1975 to register in their assigned building as soon as possible and before August 26, 1975. Each building office is open daily, and registrations will help in proper pupil assignment at the beginning of the school year. It will also be appreciated if any students not planning to return to school this year would arrange withdrawal before August 26, 1975.

Friendship Fire news

Friendship Fire Company was called to an apartment house at 241 Marietta Avenue, Mount Joy for a gas leak on Sunday, August 3. The leak was reported by Mount Joy Police at 4:20 P.M. The gas was coming from an overheated liquid pressurized tank which had vented. There was no fire. The department was in service 25 minutes.

Friendship Fire Co. No. 1, Mount Joy, PA. announced that it has retained the services of the Hockenbury System, Inc. of Harrisburg, PA., to conduct a feasibility study for the Fire Company.

Frank Good, Jr. Chief, said, "the feasibility study will allow us to determine how we can best develop and finance a new facility to adequately meet the needs of the Fire Company so that we can continue to expand our services to the community."

East Donegal zoning laws

A Zoning Ordinance, to implement the Comprehensive Plan adopted last summer, has been drawn up by the Planning Commission of East Donegal Township.

The new ordinance will be available for public inspection at the township shed in Maytown on Friday, August 15.

On Tuesday, August 26, members of the Commission will be at the Maytown Elementary School to answer questions any citizens

On Tuesday, August 26, at 8 p.m., members of the Commission will be at the Maytown Elementary School to answer questions citizens may have about the new ordinance.

A public hearing on the ordinance is being planned for Tuesday, September 9 at 8 p.m. at Donegal High School.

Residents can legally petition concerning the ordinance prior to the public hearing.
