Bainbridge gets new ambulance

Bainbridge Fire Company has a new 1975 Dodge Maxivan Ambulance, purchased for $15,000 from Schumacher Emergency Equipment, Lititz. It is fully equipped and can carry two patients.

It will be manned by Emergency Medical Technicians: Joe Lindsey, Harry Zink, and Sam Zink, and by firemen certified by National Red Cross: Marty Camp, Jr., Earl Fuhrman, John Edey, Dennis Ginder, Ike Hoffines, and Dale Stoner. The ambulance service has changed from relying on telephone dispatches to monitor/siren dispatch service. When calling the ambulance, people should now dial 653-2001.

Leisure Club holds corn roast

by Joseph Shaeffer

The Mount Joy Leisure Club held a meeting August 11 in the Florin Fire Hall. After the invocation by Marlin Kaylor, 114 members enjoyed a corn roast and barecue with plenty of cake for dessert. It was originally planed to be held outside but due to the heat and threatening weather, it was held inside the fire hall.

After the dinner, President Joe Shaeffer opened the business meeting with the pledge of allegiance to the flag, followed by the secretary's report by Nedra Brandt and the treasurer's report by Kathryn Zink. Mrs

Hilda Weidler of the Sunshine Committee reported 13 cards sent to the shut-ins. Bertha Foreman of the Entertainment Committee stated the September meeting would be a box lunch.

A number of the members had birthdays and one couple an anniversary, so birthday and anniversary songs were sung to these members. Two new members were admitted. They were Mrs. Frances Little and Agnes Weaver, both being welcomed into the club.

President Joe spoke about the bus trip to Wheatland and to WGAL-TV. Wednesday August 20. A paper was passed to the members and 48 signed up for the trip. President Joe requested that all taking the trip, report to the rear of the St. Marks United Methodist Church at 12 noon. After the meeting adjourned a number of the members played bingo.

The next meeting will be held in the Florin Fire Hall, Monday September 8, will be a box lunch and begin at 12 noon. The speaker for this meeting will be Mr. Lester Hostetter, Trust Officer of the Union National Bank, and his subject will be Wills and Estates.

Gov. Dunkelburger at Mt. Rotary

by Joseph Shaeffer

District Governor Paul Dunkelburger, who is District Governor of 38 Rotary clubs in District 739, recently made his official visit to the Mount Joy Rotary Club. Prior to the noon meeting, Governor Paul met with President Carl Hallgren and Treasurer Joe Shaeffer, and discussed future plans for the club and answered questions and gave helpful hints on projects for the club.

At the noon meeting Governor Paul was the speaker. He stressed participation by all members in activities of the Mount Joy club. Although the club has been active, it cannot hope to survive on past laurals. Governor Paul made the statement, "Rotary is in Your Hands", saying that it is up to Rotarians to be of service and further the ideals of Rotary in our community.

Following the noon meeting a Club Assemble was held. At that time committee chairmen presented to Governor Paul their plans for the coming year, giving him an overall picture of what is being planned by the Mont Joy Rotary Club.

District Governor Paul Dunkelberger has been a Rotarian since 1942 and is a member of the Lebanon Rotary Club. He has served as president of the club, and served on many major committees, district-wide. Governor Paul is the district superintendent of Lebanon schools, holding two degrees from Penn State and one degree from Temple University. He is active in many professional, civic and community organizations. He has visited 17 countries, including four located behind the iron curtain, traveling as a tourist and a professional educator.

The District Governor is the regional administrative officer of Rotary International. As such, he is responsible for assisting the Rotary clubs in meeting their obligations and putting into effect the object, ideals and programs of the Rotary clubs he visits. Rotary is an international civic organization composed of business and professional leaders in 151 contries of the free world.
