St. Marks Church Sponsors Family
St. Mark's United Methodist Church, 27-29 E. Main St., Mount Joy is awaiting the arrival of its Vietnamese family from Fort Indiantown Gap during this week.

Mr. Vu Duc Huynh, his wife, Truong Thi Hoa, a small son, Hieu, and Mr. Vu's brother, Tri, are being sponsored by St. Mark's congregation. They will reside at 842 Wood St., Mount Joy.

Mr. Vu does not as yet have a job, but his qualifications for work in many areas will assure him of employment in a short period of time. He has served as storekeeper, stock clerk, material coordinator, salesman, and bookkeeper. In addition to this he is a teletype and radio operator. At Indiantown Gap, he worked as teletype operator for the Red Cross. He speaks English quite well and is also conversant in French.

The Susquehanna Bulletin Church Page will now include the regular schedules of all area churches. It will no longer be necessary for these to be mailed to us on a weekly basis. We do invite churches to send us news items about special programs of community interest for inclusion on the Church Page.

St. Mark's Church approved sponsorship of a Vietnamese family in the beginning of July.

The pastor has been making frequent trips to Indiantown to befriend Vietnamese families and finalize arrangements. The members of the church have pledged all kinds of support of money, furniture, clothing, and personal energies.

Individuals have indicated willingness to clean the new home, move furniture, go shopping with the family, counsel, baby-sit, tutor, give driver training, and provide transportation for the new family.

It is the church's desire that this family become an integral part of the Mount Joy Community as soon as possible.

Youth to Tell of Dominican Experiences
Four young people from St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, Pa., recently spent 9 days of missionary work in the Dominican Republic under the auspices of the Christian Medical Society. Sharon Grissinger, Judy Keller, Newton Kendig, and Michael Kohler left New York on August 12th and are returning on the 21st. They will tell the story of their activities to the worshipping congregation at St. Mark's on Sunday, August 24th (10:15 A.M.). The entire service will be in charge of the youth of the church. Miss Cindy Emenheiser will be the liturgist for the service. The community is invited to hear the story of the youth's participation in the mission of the church in our time.

At a later date the youth missionaries will give a further account of their trip with the use of pictures.

Church of God holds Camp Meeting
Rev. R. C. Warner, pastor of the Church of God in Mount Joy, has announced that a camp meeting and Bible conference will be held at Central Manor Park from August 23-31. Boarding charges at the camp will be $20 per adult and $10 for children under 12.
