

St. John's Lutheran church, Maytown

Bicentennial Committee plans tour of old Maytown houses

In response to many requests that Maytown plan a tour of old homes, the Bicentennial Committee are in final stages of arranging such an event. Some of the homes to be open were included in last year's Walk Into History; others have been added:

In addition to the hospitality of the homes, area churches will be open. The choir of St. John's Lutheran will present a half-hour musicale at 3 p.m. and the Bainbridge Band will play their annual (free) concert in the Square, beginning at 4 p.m.

Another interesting feature will be a gallery of old pictures to be shown in Arnold's Showroom.

Ladies of the Maytown Fire Company Auxiliary will serve a turkey dinner family style beginning at 11 a.m.

Homes to be open are: The Daniel B. Carter home, the Jack Frank home, and those of Mr. & Mrs. Henry L. Haines, Mr. & Mrs. Adam Greer, Mr. & Mrs. Theodore Darling, Mrs. May R. Hicks. In the Reich Church area, the homes of Mr. & Mrs. James Leonard and Mr. & Mrs. Robert Hayden will be open.

These churches will be included on the tour: Donegal Presbyterian and Reich's Evangelical Congregation; and in Maytown the Reformed (UCC), Church of God, Brethren in Christ, and St. John's Evangelical Lutheran.

The committee will meet to complete plans on August 26 at 7:30 at the home of Hazel Crankshaw. Interested persons are urged to attend.
