

Elizabethtown festival planned

The Elizabethtown Jaycees will be holding their annual community Festival September 17 through 20, Gary Myer and Joe Maher, Festival co-chairman, announce.

This year's Festival, again featuring the Market Place Fair, will be held at the old Kiwanis farm-fairgrounds, now part of the Elizabethtown College campus.

The categories for the Market Place Fair are taken from the official Pennsylvania State Farm Fair Book (with the department numbers corresponding to those in that source).

They are: dept. 3—grains and vegetables, dept. 4—fruits, dept. 5—home and dairy products, dept. 7—floral exhibits, dept. 8—group exhibits, dept. 9—domestic and fine arts, dept. 10—youth exhibits.

Exhibits will be received Monday and Tuesday, September 15 and 16, from noon till 9 p.m. at the west end of the exhibit building on the Festival grounds on Kiwanis Blvd. off College Avenue.

Exhibitors should take note, however, that perishable items will be accepted only between 6 and 9 p.m. on Tuesday.

Judging will be held Wednesday, September 17, and the exhibits will be opened to the public at 6 p.m. that evening, when the Festival begins.

Cash premiums will be awarded for the winning entries.

Full details of the Market Place Fair will be included in the Festival pamphlet which will be distributed to some 22,000 homes in a fifteen mile radius of Elizabethtown shortly before the Festival.

Interested persons outside that area may obtain more information by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Elizabethtown Jaycee Festival, P.O. Box 51, Elizabethtown, Pa., 17022
