Sue Bender

Sue Bender at convention

Sue Bender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bender, W. Donegal Street, Mount Joy, and a senior at Donegal High School, attended the National Convention of Junior Achievement at Indiana University. One of 14 delegates from Lancaster County, Sue is vice-president and editor of the annual report for Junior Achievement.

"It was the greatest experience I ever had," said Sue, who was with 2600 students from every state in the nation.

Each year the Junior Achievers meet in seminars to discuss possible projects for next year. This past year Sue's project was stained glass figurines.

Tour, Sept. 14

Hazel Crankshaw, Maytown, has announced that the tour of old homes in the Maytown area, described in last week's Susquehanna Bulletin, will be held Saturday, September 14.

Leslie Good, B.S., E-town

Leslie R. Good, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aron W. Good, R.D. 1, Marietta, was among 87 persons who recently received baccalaureate degrees from Elizabethtown College.

President Morley J. Mays conferred degrees upon the candidates at an informal dinner for them and their guests on Friday, August 15 at 6 p.m.

Miss Good received a bachelor of science in biology.

Marietta Jaycees roast a pig

Tom McCoy stands beside his homemade electric spit at the Jaycee pig roast in Marietta last Sunday. The spit includes racks for roasting potatoes and a smoke retaining roof.

Teachers win certification

Lily Grimm, Glenn Leib, John W. W. Loose, Bernard Thome, Emerson V. Stehman, and Catherine G. Zeller have all been awarded supervisory certificates at Donegal High School.
