Larry Gibble decorates his walls the good old-fashioned way

Some of Larry's work around fireplace.

Not even the bathroom has escaped Larry's love for this old-fashioned kind of wall decoration.

Larry copies the designs from restored houses in New England. He makes free-hand sketches of the Colonial era designs, copies them onto waxed paper stencils.

Larry dry-brushes the designs carefully onto his white plaster walls, giving the patterns an authentic, faded look.

Larry and Alice Gibble.
