Lee Ellis and Elias Lindemuth shoot golf aces in Wrightsville

A pair of Mount Joy golfers came up with aces at Cool Creek Country Club recently, giving the Wrightsville course the distinction of having all its par 3 holes completely conquered this season.

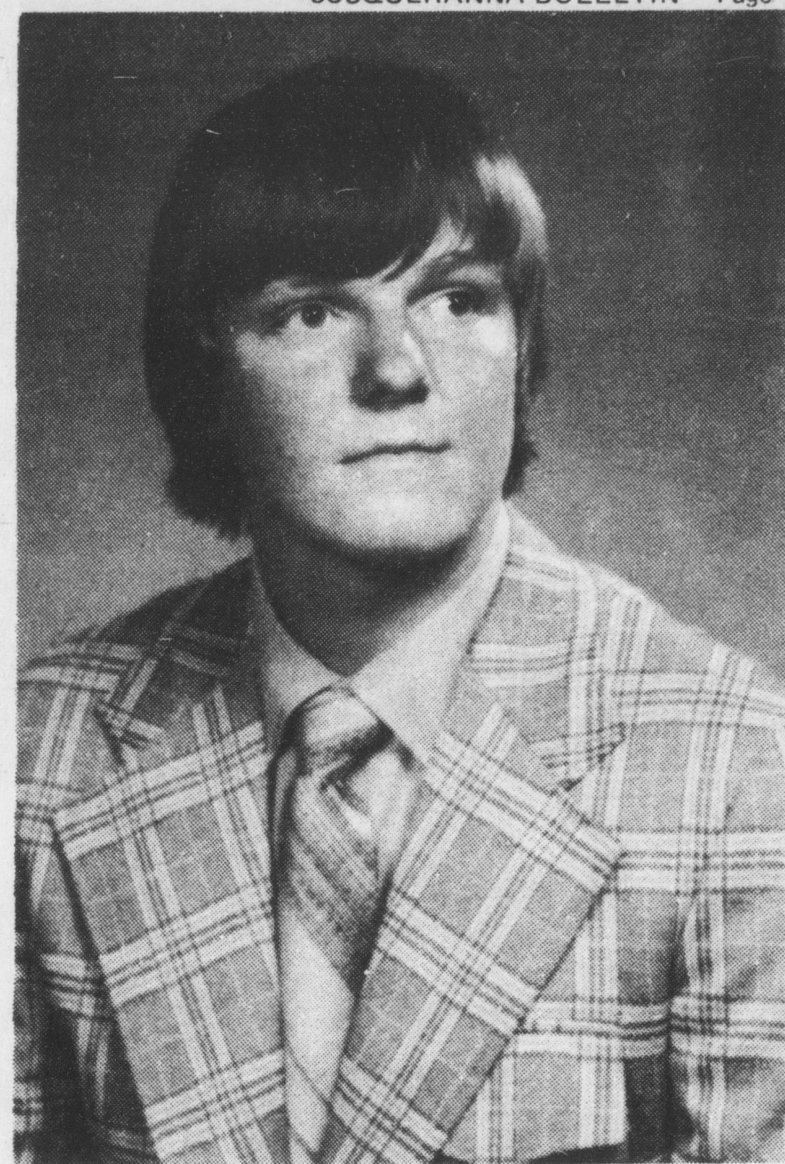

Lee Ellis holed out the 218-yard No. 11 Sunday with a driver while playing in a foursome with Joe Hostetter, Mike Pricio, and John Lehman.

Elias Lindemuth turned the trick Monday on the 141-yard No. 14. Watching again from a threesome was Lehman, along with Roy Packer.

Cool Creek assistant pro Sherm Keeney reported Lindemuth's six-iron poke sailed straight into the cup on the fly, taking along some paint from the flagstick and making a big splash in the water-filled cup, while Ellis' drive took two bounces and rolled directly into the hole.

The two aces were the sixth and seventh recorded at Cool Creek this year and completed the cycle of aces on the par 3 holes which include Nos. 2, 5, 11, 14 and 15.
