Hard fought matches in MJ junior tourney

The first Annual Mount Joy Junior Tennis Tournament was held this past weekend. Lynn Miller of Manheim captured the girls singles title by defeating Maxty, 6-2 and 6-0.

Her experience and fine strokes proved to be too much for the younger girl. Marty made it to the finals by playing a nice semi-final match against Christine Spickler, by scores of 6-0, 6—2. Lynn posted a very close 6—2, 7—5 semi-final victory over Cheryl Hinkle of Columbia.

The 12 and under boys singles went to Brian Newcomer. He defeated Fred Straub 6-1, 6-1. Brian's steadiness showed to be to much for Fred to handle.

The outstanding match of the day was the 14 and under singles match. Randy Musser outlasted Gary Ebersole in a tight dual to the finish. Randy seemed to have the match fairly under control after splitting sets, 5-7, 6-4 and up 5-0 in the third set. However, Gary fought back and tied it at 5-all. Randy regained his momentum and came back to take the set 7-5 and win the match. Randy also faced stiff competition in the semi-finals when he had to go 3 sets, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4, to defeat Gary's brother, Brian Ebersole. Gary Ebersole made it to the finals by defeating Asher Neiss 6-1, 4-6, 6-4 in a very close semi-final match.

All participants received wristbands and the winners also received headbands and trophies. The prizes and trophies were donated by Kenny Smith Sport Shop. KENNY SMITHSPORT 65 E. Main St Mount Joy, Pa. 17552
