

Mrs. Gingrich heads Conoy Bicentennial

Mrs. Harrison Gingrich, Bainbridge, has been elected president of the Conoy Township Bicentennial Committee.

Others elected to fill official positions were: Mrs. Thomas Campbell as secretary, and Harrison Gingrich as treasurer.

The committee will meet on the first Thursday of each month at St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Bainbridge. The next meeting will be on September 18 at 7:30 to hear and discuss the findings of a special committee to select an official township bicentennial design. The members of the committee are Clement Squires, Richard Brooks and William Rhoades.

Teacher certification courses at Middletown

MIDDLETOWN, PA.-- Three courses necessary for teacher certification will be offered for the first time in the evening during the Fall term at Penn State-Capitol Campus.

According to Dr. Kay Starkey, assistant professor of educational psychology, the evening classes are designed for the working person or housewife who can attend only after the work day.

The education courses being offered are: Field observation, learning theory and instructional procedures, and social and cultural factors in education.

Classes begin Sept. 24. Interested persons should contact Dr. Starkey at Penn State-Capitol Campus, Middletown, Pa. 17057 or call (717) 787-7760.

The ENERGY SAVER From Frigidaire!

FCD-123T

In recent manufacturers' tests, reported to AHAM, this model - the FCD-123T - proved that it delivered the lowest energy consumption rating of any 12 cu-ft refrigerator-freezer tested.

This Frigidaire Refrigerator-Freezer uses less energy than any Top Freezer Refrigerator-Freezer available today.*

E-town Hosp. volunteers

Last Thursday twenty-three volunteers were given special recognition at the Elizabethtown Hospital for Children and Youth.

Receiving singular acknowledgement were Carrie Ney of Mount Joy and Stella Rhoads, Hershey. Each has contributed over 2,000 hours of time, helping and working with the patients at the Hospital. Mrs. Ney regularly assists in the younger boys playroom, and Mrs. Rhoads works in the outpatient clinic.

Other volunteers to whom gratitude was expressed are Elizabethtown residents, Connie Brinton, 600 hours; Mary Rhyne, 300 hours and Martha and Mary Saunderson, each, 200 hours. Debora Cobaugh, Bainbridge, and Kathy Logeman, Wrightsville, also have given 200 hours of time and energy to hospital work.

Others receiving thanks from Robert Brinton, Volunteer Coordinator, for upward of 50 hours of volunteer service were Cathy Keener, Jeff Muller, Jane Heisey, Leisa Leger, David Myers, Lynn Smith and Mariann Wetzell, all from Elizabethtown; Amy George and Jean Stotz from Mount Joy; Beth Hoffsmith, Palmyra; Cheryl Stauffer and Carol Miller, Middletown; Connie Zinn, Marietta; Becky Schreiber, Lititz and Joan Vozzella, Hershey.

Prices Effective Thru Sat., Sept. 20.
