Jubilee Bazaar to held at St Joseph Convent

St. Joseph Convent, the Eastern USA Motherhouse of the International Congregation of the Adorers of the Blood of Christ, together with St. Joseph Academy, a four-year high boarding and day school for girls, and St. Anne's Home for the Aged are landmarks on Route 462, the old Lincoln Highway. This year marks the 50th Anniversary of the presence in the Columbia area of the Sisters who staff the Academy and the Home for the elderly, teach at Lancaster Catholic High School and other schools in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Ohio, New York, North and South Carolina, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, and Georgia. Some of the Sisters are also engaged in other related ministries.

On Saturday, September

27, from 1:00 to 8:00 p.m. on St. Joseph's grounds the Sisters will hold the Jubilee Bazaar. This bazaar will feature the handiwork of all the Sisters from the Province and that of many friends.

A spaghetti Dinner will also be served from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. and again at 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. in the Marian Hall dining room.

Adult classes in pottery & Spanish at Donegal

If enough people are interested, evening classes for adults in pottery and conversational Spanish will be offered at Donegal High School this fall.

The class in pottery, in which students will learn use of the potter's wheel and handbuilding, will be taught by Linda Ross.

The class in Spanish, in which students will learn to converse in everyday Spanish, will be taught by Glenn Hess.

Each course will meet one night a week for ten weeks, starting early in October and continuing until early December.

People interested in taking either course, for a very reasonable fee, should call Donegal High School, 653-1871.

Mount Joy Joyceettes hear "How to be a good chairman"

by Vickie Brown

The Mount Joy Joyceettes opened their new year by holding their September dinner meeting at Baker's Cafe. Following the meal, a program on "How to be a Good Chairman" was presented by Mrs. Lavon Harnish.

The meeting was called to order by President Sarah Heckert. The first item of business was the installation of Mrs. Harriet Ney as the club's new secretary. Mrs. Vickie Brown reported on the activities discussed at the September Community Council meeting. It was reported by the Chairman that the Joyceettes will be sponsoring three Brownie troops this year instead of two as in previous years. The arrival of two new children at the Messiah Home was reported by Mrs.

Sharon Funk. Also, on Saturday, October 11, a roller skating party is being planned for all the Messiah Home children.

The Babysitting Clinic started Monday, September 15, with 47 girls enrolled for the four week course. After passing a quiz at the end of the course, the students will have their names published in a Babysitting Directory.

Christian Women plan dinner meeting, Oct. 4

by Hazel Crankshaw

Ladies of Christian Women's Club, planning to celebrate their second anniversary, are inviting husbands and friends to join them in a dinner meeting at Host Farm, Lancaster, on Saturday, October 4 at 7 p.m.

The meeting is planned with the male guests in mind. Two antique cars will be on display and Mahlon Patton, Elizabethtown antique car enthusiast, will speak on "The Trials and Tribulations of Early Motor-ing".

Bob Vogel, from Havre De Grace, Md., who has put away his Baltimore Colts uniform, will be the speaker. A five-time all pro offensive tackle with the Colts, Vogel is now active in an organization known as Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He manages a cable TV operation in Maryland. His wife is Vice-Chairman of the Aberdeen Christian Women's Club.

Music will be furnished by Paul Mumma, Mount Joy, baritone, and his wife, Betty, soprano. Paul, a teacher in Manheim Central High School, began his music career at Lancaster Conservatory with Dr. Viner and continued at Bob Jones University where he received at B.A. degree in Humanities and Language.

Betty Mumma was born in Guatemala and began her singing career at age 13. At age 15 she was recording for a Christian recording company. After graduation from the Institute of Latin America, where she received a degree in Elementary Education, she went to Bob Jones University to study music. There she met her husband.

Pre-dinner music will be furnished by two Elizabethtown High School musicians, Sally Ann Garber, violinist and Judy Musser, cellist.

Reservations for the October 4 affair may be made by contacting Mrs. Jay (Marilyn) Mumma, R.D. 1, Mount Joy, Telephone 653-4886 or 367-1451. Tickets are $6.50 per person. Self-addressed, stamped envelopes should be enclosed with reservations.

Mrs. Kenneth (Mary Ann) Ober, of Elizabethtown, has been chairman of the club since its beginning.
