

Students sell subscriptions

Students at Donegal High School and Beahm Junior High School are selling magazine subscriptions this week and next to residents of the Donegal School District.

Money made from the magazine sale will go to support activities at the schools: dramatics, musical organizations, athletics, publications, and other activities like student council.

Charles H. Portser III, faculty advisor for the sale, told the Bulletin that he expects the students will sell $12,000 worth of magazine subscriptions.

The top five salespersons in each school will win prizes, ranging from a mug with the Donegal crest painted on it to a portable TV set.

The sales campaign is a learning experience for the students as well as a way of raising money for student activities. Students in Portser's business classes balance the accounting books for the campaign.

On the last day of the campaign students will sell subscriptions to the Susquehanna Bulletin.

Rep. Kenneth E. Brandt getting into his mobile local office

Rep. Brandt seeks support for mobile office

The positive response to the unique "Mobile Constituent Service Office" used in the 98th District by Rep. Kenneth E. Brandt has brought an urgent request by the legislator that the people also support legislation authorizing district offices.

Presently, State legislators receive no expense allowance for either a mobile district office or a permanent type.

"The need for a mobile office arose from the fact that our District is composed of six boroughs and six townships with no major population center," Brandt said.

"Thus, I believed that the people needed to have their State legislator bring government to them through the use of a borrowed converted camper as a mobile office.

"There is no doubt that this is the type of direct and convenient constituent service that the people want and deserve as evidenced by their initial response."

Brandt explained that the problem is obtaining a proper vehicle for use as a mobile office would cost several thousands of dollars which is not currently authorized by the Legislature.

"It is my earnest hope that the success of our mobile office plus the fact that several other legislators also are planning to use them in their rural districts will insure the successful passage of House Bill 1333," he emphasized.

"People came to each 'mobile office stop' and discussed their problems with State Government or expressed their views on current issues at the rate of five people each hour."

Brandt explained that he now needed "the people power of the 98th District to voice their opinions on the need of a District Mobile Office to properly insure they receive the best service possible by writing to him at: Rep. Kenneth E. Brandt, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pa., 17120.

"It is in the hands of the people of the 98th District to decide if they want their legislator to be able to sit down with them at convenient locations. In any case, I will continue to serve my constituents—with or without a mobile office," Brandt said.

Mitchell Nissley is Merit Scholar Semifinalist at Donegal; plans to become nuclear engineer

Mitchell Nissley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Nissley, 612 Wood Street, Mount Joy, Pa., a senior at Donegal High School has been named among 15,000 who will continue in the competition for about 3,800

Merit Scholarships to be awarded next spring.

Over one million students from more than 17,000 high schools entered the 1976 Merit Program by taking the 1974 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. The Semifinalists are the highest-scoring students in each state; the number named in each state is proportional to the state's percentage of the nation's graduating high school senior class. The Semifinalists, most of whom will complete high school and enter college in 1976, represent the top half of one percent of the nation's most academically talented young people.

Last year Mitchell Nissley won the Renssalaer Mathematical Science Award at Donegal.

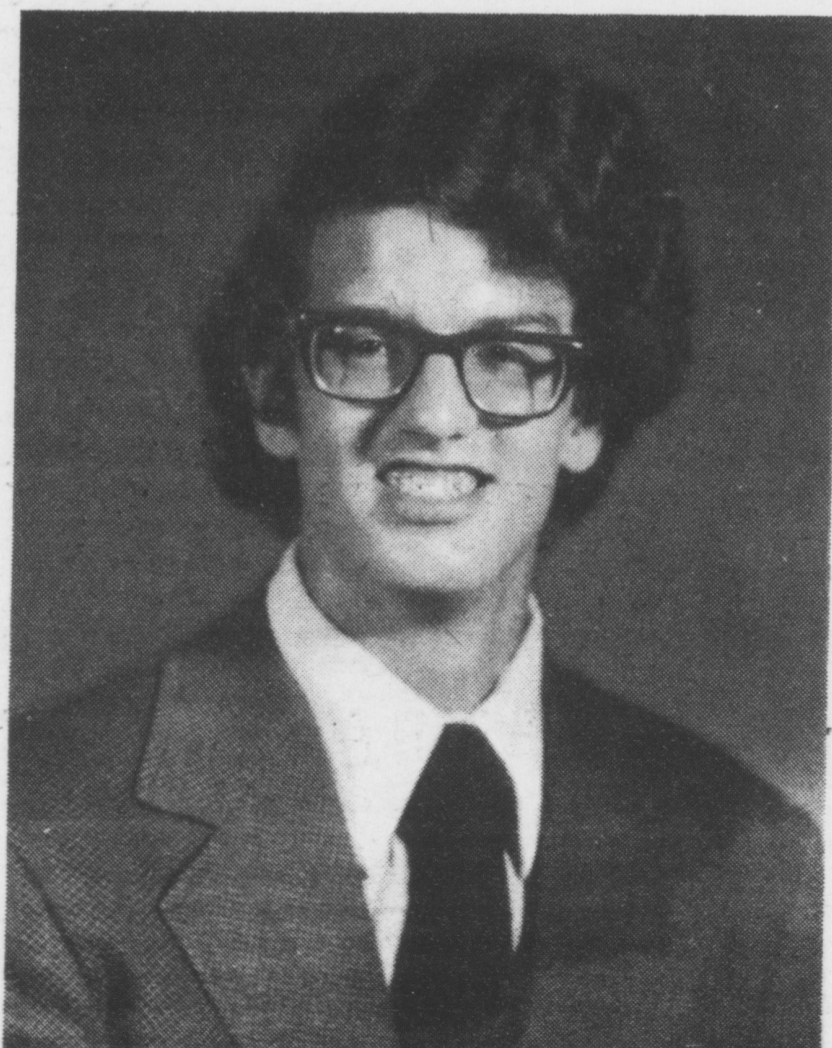

He also won the Chemistry and Mathematics Awards given by the high school.

He is a member of the rifle team at Donegal and last year placed third in the county rifle tourney.

An avid hunter and fisherman, Mitchell ties his own flies to lure trout.

He is a member of Glossbrenner United Methodist Church.

He aims to be a nuclear engineer and is applying to three colleges for admissions next September: Penn State, Renssalaer, and M.I.T.
