Col. Smith, Maytown alumnus retires after 34 years service

Colonel Chester R. Smith, former professor of military science at Gettysburg College, and director of the Army ROTC programs at York College of Pennsylvania and Millersville State College, recently retired after more than 34 years of continuous Army service. At ceremonies held in honor of his retirement, Colonel Smith was presented with the Legion of Merit by General Edward B. Atkeson the Deputy Commander of the U.S. Army War College at Carlisle Barracks.

This award is the second Legion of Merit Colonel Smith has earned. Among his many other decorations are the Joint Services Commendation Medal and the Army Commendation Medal.

As professor of military science for the past three years, Colonel Smith was responsible primarily for developing and managing the Army ROTC program at Gettysburg College. His many other career assignments included: Company Commander in Europe during World War II; Commander of the Inchon Water Port in Korea; Battalion Commander in Korea; and about eight years of duty with Headquarters, Department of the Army.

Colonel Smith is a graduate of Maytown High School and Dickinson College where he studied business administration. He earned his master's degree in the same discipline while serving on the Army ROTC staff of Michigan State University.

Colonel Smith is the son of Mrs. Herbert C. Smith of Maytown, Pa. He and his wife, the former Frances Fackler of Florin, Pa., reside at 2030 Hollywood Parkway, York, Pa.

W. MacLaren sub graduate

Navy Fireman Apprentice William H. MacLaren, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Weaver of Route 3, Manheim, Pa., was graduated from the Basic Enlisted Course at the Naval Submarine School, Groton, Conn.

The six-week course includes instruction on the operating principles of nuclear-powered and diesel submarines; shipboard procedures; control, support and weapons systems; damage control equipment; and submarine safety.

Marietta Senior League meets

by Elsie McCloskey

The Marietta Senior League will hold their regular monthly meeting in the Community House on Monday, October 6 at 1:30 p.m.

The president, Mrs. May Portner, will be in charge of the business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. William Heisey will show slides of their trip, taken this summer. They drove across country up into Yellowstone National Park, then into beautiful Glacier National Park. Then they drove to the states of Washington and Oregon, through the Giant Redwood forests and along the coast line of California.

Loose plans for symposium
