Rev. Leroy Hoover breaks ground for the new church.

Ground broken for new church by Marietta Assembly of God

by Hazel Baker

Members of the Assembly of God Church, Waterford Avenue, Marietta, broke ground for their new structure which will be built in the near future.

The site, at the intersection of Oremine Road and Route #141, was purchased for $16,000 and will have an eighty-five thousand dollar structure with 10 rooms constructed on this location. The Reverend Leroy Hoover, Pastor of the congregation stated the auditorium will seat 200 persons, and will include classrooms, nursery, study, young people facilities and utility rooms.

The congregation is currently worshipping in Old Zion's Church, Marietta.
