Fall Services at St. Mark's U.M. Church

It is the good fortune of Mount Joy and of St. Mark's United Methodist Church to have the ministry of the Rev. Mr. Kenneth Krueger for 5 days and nights during October's second full week.

Beginning with the morning worship service of the 12th of October (10:15 a.m.) and stretching through Thursday night, the pastor of the Fairview Church (United Methodist), Dayton, Ohio, will bring outstanding messages on the parables of Jesus under the overall theme, "Wonderful Words of Life."

There will be a Prayer Breakfast for the congregation at the start of the meeting on Sunday morning at 7:30 A.M.—to which everyone is invited. Each evening the 7:30 services will be preceded by 15 minutes of hymn and chorus singing while the sanctuary fills. There will be special music each evening, too, with the church's Chancel Choir singing on Sunday and Thursday evenings.

Each morning, Monday through Thursday, at 10:00 A.M. Rev. Krueger will conduct an hour-long Bible study which is open to the public.

Four weeks of cottage meetings and a visitation program will be made to fill all the pews of the sanctuary each night.

To all of these opportunities the St. Mark's congregation opens its doors and hearts.

College Chorale in Concert

The Liberty Baptist College Chorale will be heard in concert on Monday night, October 13, at 7 p.m. at the Congregational Bible Church, Rt. 441, Marietta.

The chorale includes eight young men and six young ladies. They come equipped with their own sound system, spotlight, and orchestrated accompaniment tracks for many of their numbers.

The program will present the gospel through spirituals and gospel song, as well as with traditional hymns of the church in unusual arrangements, according to Tim St. Clair, road director of the team. Soloists and small-group numbers will be featured, as well as readings by some of the gifted speakers, and personal testimonies by others.

Liberty Baptist College is one of the ministries of the Thomas Road Baptist Church, where Dr. Jerry Falwell is pastor. The Sunday school now averages in excess of 5,000 weekly.

These fourteen musicians travel ten months a year, covering 70,000 miles. They are also one of the music features of the Old Time Gospel Hour, a weekly coast-to-coast television program, with Dr. Falwell.

The public is cordially invited to attend the program; there will be no admission charge.

RALLY DAY

Rally Day will be held at the Trinity Evangelical Congregational Church, corner of W. Donegal and New Haven Sts., Mount Joy, on October 12 at 9:15 a.m.

Mrs. Harold Hollinger will be the speaker. Music for the day will be furnished by Mr. Harold Fry, also Garry and Diane Shaffner. The public is invited to come.

Brethren Church District Conference

The 6th Annual Conference for the Atlantic North-east District of the Church of the Brethren will be held in the Ephrata congregation, 201 Crescent Ave., Ephrata, Friday and Saturday, October 10 and 11.

Reports on Elizabethtown and Juniata College, Peter Becker and Brethren Village Nursing Homes, Camp Swatara will highlight the conference business.

Mary E. Weaver, Manheim will moderate the conference to be attended by several hundred delegates and will give her address on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Walton Moyer, Elizabethtown, will direct a play on World Hunger at 6:30 p.m. and the guest speaker, Floyd E. Bantz, Roaring Spring will talk on the CHURCH, CHOSEN AND CREATING.

A concert choir from the greater Philadelphia and Delaware Valley areas will sing in the evening program.

Goals for the 1970's will be presented anew and evaluated by a new committee at this conference. They will call for Spiritual Nurture sharing witness, and the organization of new congregations where the needs are not met in communities.

The district involved the total membership of 18,632 in 60 congregations in parts of counties in Harrisburg, Lancaster, Lebanon, Delaware Valley, and Philadelphia. The conference is also open to the public.

Women's Council of St. Mary's Church

The Women's Council of St. Mary's Church, Mount Joy met at the home of Mrs. Edward Sweigert, Mount Joy, R.D.#2 on Sept. 15, 1975. Mass was celebrated by Father Joseph Kofchock followed by a covered dish supper and a business meeting.

The group will hold a Rummage Sale on October 11, 1975 from 10-3 in the barn behind the Sheetz Funeral Home in Mount Joy.

On November 22, 1975 a Holiday Bazaar will be held in the Florin Fire Hall.
