

Marietta Community Chorus starts practice

by Hazel Baker

Practice for the annual Christmas cantata by the Marietta Community Chorus began last Sunday in the Marietta First United Methodist Church.

"The Wonderful Story", a cantata by Robert and Shirley Dashan, will be presented on Sunday, December 7, at 8 p.m. in the above church.

Directed by Mrs. Gerald Libhart, the production will have Mrs. Margaret Miller as organist and Mrs. George Bryant as pianist.

All persons over 16 interested in participating in the cantata are welcomed by the chorus.

Officers of the chorus are: Thomas Price, president; Fred Reitz, vice president; and Mrs. George Bryant, secretary-treasurer.

During their rehearsals, the group will also practice a 1976 musical which will be presented during the Bicentennial celebration in August. Former members are particularly invited to return to the group.

MJ Jaycees sponsor bicycle rodeo

The Mount Joy Jaycees are sponsoring a bicycle rodeo for all children ages 6 through 12, October 25, 1:00 until 2:30 p.m. at Seiler Elementary School. Each contestant will compete with children in his or her age group. Prizes will be awarded to those who score the most number of points in their age group.

The rodeo is organized in two parts: a written exam to determine if the contestant is aware of the safety rules that apply to bike operators; and six skill tests to check the ability of the child to handle his or her bike. Emphasis will be on safety. No dangerous stunts will be performed.

The Jaycees encourage all children in Mount Joy to test their bicycle skills by participating in the rodeo.

Kendig wins English honor

Based on scores he received in a test, Newton Kendig, son of Dr. and Mrs. Newton Kendig, 62 E. Main Street, Mount Joy, was exempted from having to take the beginning college course in English at Penn State.

Prof. Robert W. Frank, Jr., Chairman of English, said that exemption reflects well on preparation students received in high school.
