 host sponsors

Sa, Xuan, Hai and Hein Nguyen wanted to show their appreciation to their sponsors. The Nguyen family invited all members of the Glossbrenner Church to attend an open house at their new residence at 730 Church Street, on Sunday, October 5, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Drew Mumaw headed a committee of Sadie Brooks, Elmer Dennis, Pat Eichler, Jake Stehman, Jim Gerber and Dab Nissley to get the family here to Mount Joy.

Sadie Brooks taught the young wife to operate the automatic washer and dryer. Until the apartment was ready for them, the family spent two weeks with Mrs. Brooks, who quickly became "Mother" to Xuan. She called Sadie "Mother" and wondered what "Mother" was planning when Sadie removed a piece of frozen meat from the freezer for dinner. Sadie explained the hard object would be soft later and ready for preparation. It seems Xuan had no knowledge of frozen foods but she did say "Frigidaire" as soon as she saw the refrigerator in Sadie's kitchen.

The family is studying at Elizabethtown College in the I.U. 13 English Second Language Class, two nights a week. Dora Wittle has been a tremendous help, in that she has been tutoring the family in private sessions.

The Gish, Dennis, Ryder and Wagner families have given daily support to our new neighbors.

Sa, a first-class cook, is now working at Stehman's IGA, until a chef position can be found.

CWC feature
 dried flowers

Table arrangements of dried flowers will highlight the meeting of Christian Women's Club scheduled for November 12. All women are eligible to participate and should design their entries for one of the five categories assigned.

Arrangements will be judged as most colorful, outstanding, unusual, petite, and low budget.

Danise Wilson, CWC National Representative from Baltimore will be the featured speaker and Christine Beery, Elizabethtown soprano, will sing.

Reservations must be made no later than November 8. Check for $3.25 per person, and self-addressed and stamped envelope should be sent to Mrs. Marilyn Mumma, R.D.1, Mount Joy, 17552. Phone 653-4886. Nursery will be provided at Mount Joy Mennonite Church.

A prayer coffee is planned for October 29 at the home of Anna Aungst, R.D.1, Elizabethtown. Phone 367-2121.
