

Marietta Council declares trick or treat night—Thurs., Oct. 11

Trick-or-Treat in Marietta will be on Thursday, October 30, 7 to 9 p.m., Mayor Bernard McDevitt has announced.

J. R. Flanagan and John Reuter were appointed by Council President John Parke to investigate candidates for assistant solicitor for the borough, to avoid conflict of interest with the borough solicitors: Nikolaus Hohenadel, and Umben-hauser.

Council approved installation of a new oil burner in the borough building and to move the oil tank indoors.

Council decided to contact members of the Planning Commission who have not been attending meetings, to determine if they wish to continue serving. Mayor McDevitt announced an impending crackdown on speeding cars at both ends of the borough.
