

Farm Women hear Lester Hostetter on mums

Farm Women Society #8 met at the Chiques Methodist Church at Mt. Joy on Saturday, October 18th at 2 p.m. Mrs. Grace Bixler, president, presided.

After a period of fellowship, singing, and devotions led by Miss Anna Mae Eby, guests from Society #25 were introduced. There were 30 members and 13 guests present.

Mr. Lester Hostetter of the Trust Department of Union National Bank, was the featured speaker. He is a fancier of chrysanthemums and brought with him a colorful display of 15 or more prize-winning specimens. Many of these had taken prizes at a recent flower show in Lancaster. He gave interesting and detailed instructions on the raising and care of chrysanthemums. The display may be seen October 20-25 at Union National Bank of Mt. Joy.

Mrs. Margaret Heisey of the Ways and Means Committee reported that a food and bazaar table had been reserved for our society at the Farm and Home Center for Homemakers' Day, November 13th. Items of food or crafts for the table should be left at the home of Mrs. Kathryn Erb, 255 Marietta Ave., Mt. Joy, by 8 a.m. that day, so they may be taken to Lancaster promptly.

Mrs. Viola Greider of the Sunshine Committee reported that Mrs. Elizabeth Witmer has returned from the hospital to her home at Brethren Village, and that Anna Wolgemuth and Lizzie Keener are recuperating. President Bixler reported that nine of our ladies went to the General Hospital to sew on October 1st, and repaired 879 pieces. She also brought to attention the coming County Convention of Farm Women to be held at Farm and Home Center on November 1st, beginning at 10:30 a.m.

Refreshments were served by hostesses Mrs. Elizabeth Newcomer, Mrs. Mary Reist, Mrs. Kathryn Heisey, Mrs. Kathryn Erb, Mrs. Emma Staats, Mrs. Anna Wolgemuth, and Mrs. Ethel Herr.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Grace Bixler on November 15th, when Mr. Lynn Longenecker will give an Art Demonstration.

Beth Whalley at St. Mark's

Beth Whalley, a Christian Folksinger from Ocean Grove, New Jersey, will appear in a special Sunday evening concert and sing-along on Sunday evening, November 2, 1975, at St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, Pa. The time of the concert is 7:00 p.m. in the sanctuary of the church. Accompanying Miss Whalley on the string bass is Tom Case a high school teacher from Ocean Grove.

The program will be unique in that it will combine the traditional church music with the emerging contemporary music. The congregation will be asked to sing such old favorites as "My Hope is Built," "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," as well as Christian folk songs like "We All Can Live" and "They'll Know We Are Christians By Our Love."

The concert is being sponsored by the Worship Commission of St. Mark's Church. The community is invited. A freewill offering will be received.

DID YOU HEAR....

The Marietta Jaycees' "Scream in the Dark" was such a screaming success that it is being held over for another two gruesome nights. You, too, can be scared witless next Friday and Saturday nights, October 31 and November 1, at the Jaycees old school in downtown Marietta any time between 7:30 and 10:00 for only 50c.
