

Volunteer Jo Anne Aument with first graders.

Volunteer mothers aid in classes

Mothers of first graders have been helping the first grade teachers at Seiler since school began this year.

Mrs. Jo Anne Aument enjoys spending one day a week in Mrs. Dorothy Young's classroom. The unpaid work is tiring, and a bit hectic at times, but very interesting.

She says, "It gives you a chance to see what's really involved in teaching."

Mrs. Young says, "Donegal School District's philosophy is individual attention for all children. With a volunteer, you can give a lot of that individual attention."

Next door, in Mrs. Elizabeth Baley's class, another volunteer was hard at work.

Mrs. George Blasick is a teacher's aide because, "It's a lot of fun."

One of the main jobs of all the mothers who volunteer is guiding the reading groups, Mrs. Baley pointed out.

Children listen to stories through earphones while they read the stories in their workbooks.

Small groups of children can get individual help with their reading, while the teacher leads the rest of the class in its regular lessons.

First grader Crystal Zechman summed up the student's reaction to the volunteer aides. "I like them because I like their stories," she said.

The volunteer aides in Mrs. Young's class are: Mrs. Frank Aument, Mrs. Jacob Brown, Mrs. Debra Witt, and Mrs. Larry Laughman.

Substitute volunteer aides are: Mrs. Joseph Heckert, Mrs. Donald Yingst, Mrs. James Zuch, and Mrs. John Yourglivich.

The mother's party group includes Mrs. Stettler, Mrs. Yingst, Mrs. Rolland, Mrs. Aument, and Mrs. Zuch.

The volunteer aides in Mrs. Baley's class are: Mrs. Wilbur Nissly, Mrs. Harry Miley, Mrs. Clair Mummau, Mrs. Horace Derry, Mrs. Victor Berrier, Mrs. Neil Mengel, Mrs. Charles Ricedorf, Mrs. Joyce McKain, Mrs. Merle Geesey, Mrs. Jacob Brown, and Mrs. George Blasick.

The mother's party group include Mrs. Mummau, Mrs. Atkins, Mrs. Derr, and Mrs. Stephens.

Leisure Club meeting place

President of the Mount Joy Leisure Club Joe Scaffer received a letter from the Florin Fire Company, asking the Leisure Club to vacate the firehouse as a meeting place. The letter stated that on November 4, the Fire Company would sign a lease, renting the building to the Head Start Child Care Center on a weekly basis, twelve months a year.

As a temporary meeting place, President Shaeffer stated that Hostetter's Dining Hall in Mount Joy will be the site of the November 10 meeting. The meeting will begin as previously stated, at 12 noon. Contact has been made with the Mount Joy Sportsman Association to use their facilities for future meetings.
