

Robert Walker addresses Mount Joy B.P.W.

Robert S. Walker, administrative assistant to Congressman Edwin D. Eshleman was guest speaker for the October session for the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's Club. Mr. Walker, chairman of the Lancaster County Republican Committee and co-author with his boss of a book, spoke on Business Women in Politics.

The three I's, according to the speaker are the guidelines for a successful program. Start anything with an avid interest; use your initiative; and yet involved. Tell your committeeman of your thoughts, meet the candidates and call party organizations. After commitment, don't back off.

The program was arranged by the public relations committee with Mrs. Ben Horst Jr., as chairperson, Mrs. Horst introduced Mary Kanoff, who sang various selections accompanied by Mike Kohler. Members of the public relations committee are Mrs. William Barto, Mrs. Leslie Blake, Mrs. Richard Bromer, Miss Elsie Lefever, Mrs. Loran Rahe, and Mrs. Rosco Thome.

Miss Christine Heineman, girl of the month, was introduced by Mrs. James Heilig, chairman of the personal development committee. Mrs. Charles Heineman, Maytown, was also guest of the club.

Mrs. John Fry, president, introduced Mrs. Mary Andrews, District Director of district #7, who brought greetings and congratulations to the local group as the largest club (107 members) in the District. The Mount Joy club is the first in the state to have a policewoman member.

A description of the annual candlelight tour was presented by Co-chairperson, Mrs. Harold Keller: nine homes, Donegal Church (including the Manse), Vo-tech School, and the Cameron Conference Center.

Mrs. Ronald Hart, correspondence secretary read an invitation from the Columbia BPW club to attend the 50th anniversary of that group on November 3rd, at Sherwood Knoll Inn, Centerville.

Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Harold Keller, and Mrs. Sam Balsbaugh, were commended by President Fry for obtaining new members.

An announcement was made; in the future persons making reservations and not cancelling would be expected to pay for their meals.
