

Girl Scouts to sell calendars, collect aluminum cans, paper

by Cindy Charles

Senior Girl Scout Troop #944 held their first meeting on September 3 at the Florin Fire hall to organize and plan their activities for the year. They will be selling Girl Scout Calendars and collecting aluminum cans for recycling purposes. For Needleguild this year, the girls decided to make boot banks made out of felt, coffee cans, and other materials.

The troop will be collecting papers in Mount Joy on November 7. We would appreciate if you would set your papers out Friday evening by 4:30. If you have too many papers to set out, please call 653-2484 between 10:00 and 2:00 Friday, November 7. Also, if you could bring the paper to the Florin Fire Hall on Friday evening or before 10:00 Saturday morning, it would be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Needlework Guild helps needy

One-thousand, three hundred and twenty-three articles and $251 were collected for the annual ingathering for the Mount Joy chapter Needlework Guild of America, in St. Marks United Methodist Church, Mount Joy. One-hundred items were contributed by 10 girl scout troops, Donegal neighborhood, Penn Laurel Council. Distribution to the needy and agencies was October 29.

The annual business session was held at 2 p.m. when Mrs. Simeon Horton, president, introduced three new Directors: Mrs. Arthur Haines, Marietta, Mrs. Jere Miller and Mrs. Robert Walker, Mount Joy.

Miss Lynn Schumack, a representative of Catholic Social Services was the speaker for the meeting, explained the functions of the service which has been in existence for many years. She stated that there is a great need for garments, especially for unwed mothers and babies. Approximately 200 girl scouts presented a flag ceremony and explained how their contribution was made. Refreshments were served.

Orders were taken until November 5, by the members of the junior class and the candy will arrive the first week in December. All orders will help to make this sale a success. Thank you for your support. peanut butter cups, and peanut clusters, and more which are coated in dark or milk chocolate.
