Glossbrenner church plans bazaar

Glossbrenner United Methodist Church Christmas Bazaar will be held November 15th, from 9:00 a.m. til 7:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Church members have been working all year on many projects. Many of the women embroidered quilt squares that they are now putting together on a sky blue background that is filled, lined, and quilted. It will be sold at silent auction the day of the bazaar. There will also be a Noah's Ark quilt, crib size; and a crib size to match the large one of blue.

There will be a soup kitchen offering homemade chicken corn and vegetable soups. Sandwiches, hot dogs and of course many deserts. Various tables will be overflowing with plants, holiday trim, candles, holiday gifts, crafts, and a special children's corner. This will enable small children to purchase gifts for their parents and have them wrapped and tagged for Christmas morning.

Many hands working together have developed new friends, ideas, and Christian love.

Women helping on the quilt are: Mrs. Ruth Musser, Mrs. Edna Brubaker, Mrs. Carrie Ney, Helen Hamilton, Mrs. Irene Hess, and Mrs. Amy Hess.

Mrs. Mary Nissley was kind enough to help her friends from Glossbrenner even though she is a member of Crossroads Brethren Church, and Mrs. Amy Hess is from the Mount Joy Mennonite.
